Price—Three Dollars per annum.

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of its editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which, for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for ten cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still room enough for us to aim at offering to the increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

☞ Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

Mr. Coombes presented a petition of sundry citizens of Prince George's county, relating to the inspection of Mackerel in the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Henderson presented a petition of Samuel McBride, of Cecil county, praying the passage of an act authorizing him to bring into this State a certain negro boy therein named.

And Mr Hood presented a petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, praying for the opening of a road therein mentioned.

Mr. Richardson submitted the following order; which was twice read and adopted;

Ordered, That the Speaker appoint a committee of three to enquire into the propriety of passing a law prohibiting the wearing of dirks, pistols, Bowie knives, or other deadly weapons, except by military men while in service, and making the wearing of such weapons by private citizens a penal offence.

In pursuance whereof the Speaker appointed Messrs. Richardson, Ridgely, and Dunbrac co, the committee.

Mr. Richardson submitted the following preamble and order:

Whereas, at the present time it is believed that the ordinary revenue of the State is insufficient to meet the current expenses, and there is no reasonable probability that this unpleasant state of things will cease to exist for some time to come, it therefore becomes the imperious duty of those entrusted with the interest of the State to adopt the most rigid system of economy which may be compatible with the public welfare.

It is therefore ordered, that the Speaker appoint a committee of five, charged with the duty of inquiring what retrenchment can be made in the current expenses of the State without any injury to any of its interests, and that said committee report to this House by bill or otherwise.

Which was twice read.

Mr. Culbreth, moved to strike out the preamble to said order;

Resolved in the affirmative;

The question then recurred, and was put, on the adoption of the order,

Resolved in the affirmative.

In pursuance whereof, the Speaker appointed Messrs. Richardson, Alexander, Kershner, Carpenter, and Hicks, the committee.

On motion of Mr. Richardson,

Ordered, That the Speaker appoint a committee of five to inquire whether the contracts for the public printing, made under the law of 1831, have been faithfully complied with, and whether or not the prices paid in pursuance of said law are such, as a due regard to economy and the public interest demands, and whether the great improvements which have been made in the art of printing since the adoption of the present prices, would not enable us to have the necessary printing executed at prices much below those now paid.

In pursuance whereof, the speaker appointed Messrs. Richardson, Culbreth, Buchanan, Handy and Cristfield, to compose the committee.

Mr. Buchanan, reported a bill, to confirm an act, to amend the Constitution and form of Government, so far as relates to the division of Allegany county, into election districts.

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, passed and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Hood,

The house then adjourned.

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, January 5, 1837.

The Managers of the Female Orphan Society of the City of Annapolis, hereby give notice that they contemplate holding their Annual Fair some time in January next, and solicit the aid of all their friends and patrons in preparing articles for exhibition on that occasion. The managers flatter themselves that no diminution of interest will be felt in regard to this valuable Institution, and hope to receive from the public, tangible proofs of their continued approbation.

On Monday his Excellency Thomas W. Veazey was elected Governor of Maryland for the ensuing year. And on Tuesday, Gwinn Harris Nathaniel F. Williams, William F. Johnson, John McKenny, and William L. Jones, were elected the Council to the Governor.

Robert W. Tidball, Esq. of Washington county, and Joseph M. Cottman, Esq. of Somerset county, were elected Senators in the place of Wm. Price and Thomas K. Carroll, Esqrs. who declined.

The great length of the Governor's Message has excluded a variety of matter intended for this day's paper.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ANNAPOLIS December 28th, 1836.

Gentlemen of the Senate,
and of the House of Delegates:

In discharging, on the present occasion, the customary duty of submitting to you at the commencement of your session, such matters of public concern as may seem to demand the consideration of the General Assembly, we cannot refrain, in the outset of this communication, from congratulating you, and the people of the State at large, upon the restoration of peace and quiet within our borders; upon the harmony which prevails among our citizens; and upon the praiseworthy desire manifested in every quarter, of uniting zealously and in the best spirit for the advancement of the true glory and welfare of the State.

There is, in our opinion, no truth more obvious, or scarcely more important to be known and recognized in every well regulated government, than that the undue prevalence and excitement of the spirit of party are calculated to disturb the peace of society, and create serious and permanent evils in the body politic. This salutary lesson is exemplified in the history of all governments, but it is more particularly striking in those whose foundations are based upon republican principles. If it were necessary to travel beyond the limits of our own observation and experience to establish the truth of these remarks, we might show, that in the anarchy and consequent destruction of most, if not all the free governments of both ancient and modern times, an inflamed party spirit has been a most prominent and efficient agent. But it is not necessary to do so. In our own times—here—in our own State, and before our own eyes, have we witnessed the extreme to which the undue indulgence of the spirit of party leads. But, happily, in our case the patriotism of the community was aroused to the dangers with which we were threatened, and the issue of the recent occurrences furnishes a practical illustration of the stability of our free institutions, when supported by a patriotic and intelligent people.

In this connexion we would respectfully invite your attention to the Proclamation and Message which we had the honour to submit to the House of Delegates on the 25th ultimo, copies of which we herewith transmit to the Senate. These Documents exhibit the action of the Executive, and the views entertained by us of the further measures necessary and proper to be adopted in relation to the extraordinary occurrences of which they treat. The more we reflect on this subject, the more thoroughly are we persuaded that our action concerning it is a duty of the most weighty and responsible character, and we therefore, earnestly hope that you will take into your serious consideration, without any unnecessary delay, our Election and Criminal Laws, with the view to prevent the recurrence of any similar conduct in all future time.

Among the first acts which it will be necessary for you to perform, is the passage of such a law as will entitle this State to the reception of her portion of the Surplus Revenue of the United States, under the Deposite Law of the last session of the National Congress. It is probable that the sum which Maryland will be entitled to receive under this act, will not fall far short of a million and a half of dollars.—The application of this large fund will, therefore, necessarily constitute a prominent subject for deliberation at your present session, as the whole amount of it will fall due before the next annual session of the General Assembly.

The Internal Improvement law of the extra session in May last, having amply provided for works of this character, by authorizing the negotiation of a loan of eight millions of dollars, —the whole of which sum is appropriated to the most important object—(and which we think should not be diverted to any other,) we beg leave most respectfully to recommend that the amount which may be received by this State, as her portion of the surplus revenue referred to, be invested either in the eight million loan, the stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, lately subscribed for under the Internal Improvement act, or in some other permanent and profitable stock; and that the interest or dividends to be annually received therefrom, be applied to the general purposes of the State, until the treasury shall be relieved from the balance which has appeared against it for several past years, and be in a condition to meet, from other sources, all demands against it; and that, thereafter, the said interest or dividends be appropriated to the advancement of Education.

It is believed that the appropriation of the accruing interest upon said fund for about three or four years, to the general purposes of the treasury, and the completion of the great works of Internal Improvement, in which the State has large investments—which may and ought to be effected in the same time—will relieve the State treasury from all difficulty, and leave it, thereafter, with ample resources, independent of said fund, to meet all the ordinary and necessary expenses of the government, and demands against it. And it will probably require about the same length of time to mature and get into operation a general system of Education, commensurate with the increased means of sustaining it.

Of the importance of Education, it is not necessary for us to speak in lengthened terms—That is a subject upon which we all harmonise in opinion. Confessedly, the greatest blessing and most secure palladium of a free people—their firmest reliance for the perpetuity of their freedom, and for the discomfiture and overthrow of those who invade it,—it must ever claim from their true representatives, and their real friends, the most efficient support generally, whenever the means in their power shall enable them to extend it. We regard the present as a most auspicious crisis for the establishment of a general system of Education throughout the State, which we hope may, and should be so conducted as that no one need forego its beneficial influences. It is not probable that any considerable portion of the surplus fund allotted to the States will be wanted for many years to come, and we do not regard it at all certain, that it will ever be required by the General Government, unless, perhaps, some extraordinary event, such as a foreign war, shall render the demand of a pressing and indispensable character. Unless some such contingency should happen, we are firmly persuaded that its recall to the coffers of the U. States Treasury should be resisted by the representatives of the people of the States; and we have no doubt this will be done. Under these circumstances, any system of Education, based upon the perpetuity of this fund will be most likely to continue through a protracted series of years; and, in his light, it becomes a matter demanding the most serious consideration, and judicious arrangement. But, although the permanent continuance of this fund among the States is a proposition which, in our opinion may be relied upon with much confidence, yet it will be necessary that it should be so invested, that whenever its repayment shall be called for, it may be met with that promptness of execution which should characterize the engagements of a sovereign State, and which is so indispensable to her character and credit. It was with a view to the attainment of this most desirable object, that we suggested the propriety of making provision for the annual outlay of the interest only; not deeming the expenditure of any portion of the principal, under the existing law of Congress, a proper or expedient.

Reform in the constitution of the State will constitute another prominent topic for your consideration; and permit us to express the opinion, founded upon mature reflection on the subject, that it is of the highest importance that your present session should not be brought to a close without the adoption of at least some leading measures bearing upon this difficult and exciting question. We had the honour of submitting some suggestions on this subject, in the message to the House of Delegates before mentioned, to which we beg leave at this time respectfully to call your attention.

It has become our painful duty to announce to you the death of the Honorable Robert H. Goldsborough, late a representative of this State, in the Senate of the United States. This melancholy event occurred in October last, at his residence on the Eastern Shore. The distinguished character of the deceased; his many valuable public services; his singular urbanity and kindness in all the relations of private life; his superior intellectual endowments and high moral worth, had acquired for him a name among his fellow countrymen which will cause him to be classed and remembered with the purest and proudest which adorn the long catalogue of Maryland's distinguished sons.

It will be incumbent upon you to supply the vacancy, created by this mournful dispensation of Divine Providence, at as early a day as convenient, since the importance of a full representation from this State in the Senate of the United States, during the residue of the present session of Congress, when many deeply interesting questions are likely to be decided, is so obviously apparent. We forebore to exercise the power of making a temporary appointment of a successor, with which we were clothed by the constitution, because it was not probable, that a full representation in the Senate of the United States, would be of much importance before your annual meeting, and because, without strong necessity we were unwilling, by such appointment, to interfere with your unbiassed choice in making a more permanent selection.

In compliance with the resolution of the last General Assembly, No. 15, we appointed one commissioner from each of the counties of the Eastern Shore of this State, to make a reconnoisance and survey, and an estimate of the cost of a rail road from some point or points in Cecil county, in connexion with one or more of the improvements in said county, and thence extending by a line, as straight as may be, nearly contiguous to parallel with the Western limits of the State of Delaware, to the southern extreme of Somerset county, with a divergent route through Worcester county, to the northern line of the State of Virginia, &c." We have not received any official report of the completion or extent of progress made in the survey of the route for said rail road, or of the estimate of its cost; but we have unofficially understood, that the survey of a route for the main line, and also an estimate of its cost, have been completed, and will be reported as soon as the chief engineer, employed in making them can prepare his report, and the necessary maps and documents to accompany it.

On application to the President of the United States, as required by the charter of Annapolis and Potomac canal company, we procured the services of George W. Hughes, Esquire, one of the United States' corps of engineers, in making the necessary surveys for the route of said canal. Mr. Hughes, in a communication to us, dated the 8th ult., states, "that the surveys and location of the canal are drawing to a close, and with favourable weather will be entirely completed by the last of next week." We have not since received any further communication from Mr. Hughes, but presume that his report of the surveys, &c. will be made without unnecessary delay. In connexion with this subject, we lay before you a copy of a communication from Mr. Hughes, and of the extracts of proceedings of the commissioners and of the President and Directors of the Maryland canal company, enclosed and mentioned in his communication, marked No. 3.

In pursuance of the authority conferred on us by the 8th section of the act, passed at the extra session of May last, entitled "An act for the promotion of internal improvement," we appointed Charles B. Fisk Esquire, of the United States' corps of engineers, to survey the several routes of the Maryland canal company, by the valleys of the Monocacy and Patapsco, or by a route diverging from the Chesapeake and Ohio canal at the mouth of the Seneca river, exclusively within the limits of this State, and to perform the other duties prescribed by the said act. And the Maryland canal company, also, in pursuance of the authority conferred by the act aforesaid, appointed George W. Hughes, Esquire, another of the engineers of the United States' corps, to act concurrently with the engineers appointed by us," in making said surveys, &c. as appears by a communication from the President of said company, a copy of which is herewith submitted, marked No 4.

On the 20th day of July last, one of the aforesaid engineers made to us the report, of which the document herewith sent, marked No. 5, is a copy. Upon consideration whereof, and in pursuance of the requisition of the aforesaid act, we adopted the preamble and resolution, of which the document marked No. 6 is a copy.

The agreement of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal company, and of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road company, in general meetings of said corporations respectively assembled, to the several provisions of the act for the promotion of internal improvements, passed at the extra session of May last, so far as they are applicable to said corporations respectively, were severally communicated, under their respective corporate seals, and the signatures of their Presidents, to the Governor of this State within the time required by the said act. The documents herewith marked Nos. 7 and 8, are copies of the said communications.

In pursuance of the act passed at May session last, entitled "An act to authorize the Governor and Council to build a new tobacco inspection warehouse in the city of Baltimore," and of the supplement thereto, we contracted with John N. and William Murphy, building mechanics of the said city, for building a new warehouse on the vacant lot adjoining the State's tobacco inspection warehouse No 3, upon the plan and of the dimensions referred to in said act, and we contracted for the purchase of the lot of land adjoining said vacant lot, as required by the act aforesaid. By the communication from the commissioner of loans, of which the document mark'd No. 9 is a copy, it appears that the loan provided for by the above mentioned acts, to pay for the vacant lot and the erection of the warehouse, could not be obtained upon such terms as would have justified its negotiation, or, as it is evident, was expected by the General Assembly.

Under these circumstances—a contract having been made for the erection of the new warehouse—and for the purchase of the vacant lot, as required by law—and no funds of consequence in hand, or likely to be procured by the loan provided for as aforesaid—we had recourse to the authority contained in the law of December session 1825, entitled, "A supplement to the act to establish State warehouses for the inspection of tobacco in the city of Baltimore," which places under our direction and control the nett revenue arising from the inspection of tobacco as a fund for building warehouses. Under this last mentioned act, we have paid towards the erection of the new warehouse and for the said lot $4,070 21, all the nett revenue arising from the inspection of tobacco in the treasury, up to the 1st instant; and issued certificates of debt, chargeable upon the future receipts of said revenue, for $7.433 55 payable in six months, and for $2,500 payable in twelve months, bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, in payment for the balance of the purchase money of the said lot, and towards the erection of the warehouse. And it will be necessary, from time to time, as the work progresses, to issue further certificates of debt, at such dates of payment as the inspection revenue will probably meet. The certificates which have been issued were cashed by the Union Bank, as we presume that such as may hereafter issue, will be by that institution or otherwise, without difficulty.

The future to obtain the small loan provided for to be applied to the erection of a new tobacco warehouse and purchase of an adjoining lot, and various other indications of an unfavourable state of the money market, as well in Europe as in this country, induced us to postpone the appointment of commissioners, which we were authorized to make, to negotiate the loan of eight millions of dollars, under the act of May last, for the promotion of internal improvement. Recent information induces us to believe that a favourable change has commenced, and that well grounded hopes may be entertained that the condition of the money market will soon be such that the eight million loan may be obtained on terms within the limits of said act. We have therefore recently appointed commissioners to negotiate it.

As required by resolution No. 55 of the General Assembly, passed in May last, we appointed three citizens of Worcester county, commissioners to make a reconnoisance and survey, and to estimate the cost of a rail road within the limits of Worcester county, from some point on the south line of the State of Delaware, through the town of Berlin, New Ark, and Snow Hill, to some suitable point on Pocomoke river; and also to extend the reconnoissance and survey from the assumed point of Delaware, in as straight a line as may be, to the northern line of the State of Virginia, bounding Worcester county, a divergent route to any one or more of the places therein mentioned, or to connect the said route with any other works of improvement authorized by this State, or the States of Delaware and Virginia, &c." And the said commissioners having, as authorized by the resolution in September last, made a requisition on the Governor for the services of the State's engineer in making the reconnoisance, survey, &c., we apprized the engineer of the requisition, and directed him to correspond with the commissioners on the subject. We received from the engineer an acknowledgement of our communication, stating that he would comply with our directions, and shortly be in readiness to attend to that duty. We have not received any report from either the commissioners or the engineers in relation to said survey.

We transmit herewith a copy of a communication from the President of the Baltimore and Susquehanna rail road company, with a printed copy of the ninth annual report of the President and Directors thereof, which affords a gratifying view of the progress and prospects of that company in the highly important work of internal improvement in which they are engaged.

We have not received any official report from the Chesapeake and Ohio canal company, or of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road company of the progress of those companies the present year, in executing those great works, so vitally important to the commercial, financial and general interests and prosperity of the State, but we presume, of course, that such reports will be submitted to your consideration at your present session.

Such are the character and magnitude of those works; the importance of the trade they are intended, and cannot when completed fail to attract to our commercial metropolis, and the deep financial interest of the State connected with them, that their speedy completion is a matter of such high and pressing importance as to demand from all concerned the most vigorous and energetic efforts to accomplish it.

In conformity to the 44th resolution of the last General Assembly, directing the procurement of full length portraits of the late William Paca, Samuel Chase, and Thomas Stone, three of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence from this State, we succeeded in procuring the services of John B. Bordley a young and eminent native artist, who has executed the paintings in a highly creditable manner. These portraits may now be seen appropriately arranged in the Senate Chamber, by the side of that of the distinguished Carroll, and altogether present to the eye of the beholder a most interesting and impressive spectacle.

In compliance with the resolution of the last General Assembly in relation to the manuscript History of Maryland, by John Leeds Bozman, presented to the State by John Leeds Kerr, Esquire, we contracted with Messrs. Lucas & Deaver, of the city of Baltimore, for printing at least one thousand copies of that work; five hundred copies of which we reserved to the State, to be delivered by the said Lucas and Deaver within eighteen months well bound in sheep, at $4 per copy.

The repairs of the public grounds around the State House have not yet been entirely completed. The new stone wall and iron railing appear to be executed in a substantial and workmanlike manner; and with the exception of the gates to be placed at the three entrances to the circle, this portion of the work may be said to be completed. There are some trifling improvements which remain to be done on the interior of the circle, such as removing rubbish and grading the ground, to which objects we think a small additional appropriation should be directed. After these repairs and improvements shall have been thoroughly consummated, it will be with you to decide upon the expediency of appointing a suitable person, with a small salary, to take care of the public grounds and other state property, and to keep them in suitable order.

Under resolution No. 66, of the last annual session, we have caused to be transcribed the original journal of proceedings of the Council of Safety for the years 1774 and 1775, and the original Journal of the Convention of 1775, and the correspondence and other papers connected with those interesting bodies, and periods of our history. By an inspection of this transcript, the reader will find that numerous highly valuable and interesting papers have been thus rescued from oblivion.—We have not been able to give but a cursory examination to the numerous other papers recently brought to light. It will remain for the Executive hereafter to determine upon a fuller examination of them, what portion, if any, ought to be transcribed, to carry out the views of the Legislature, as expressed in the resolution on that subject.

The various other resolutions passed at the last session of the General Assembly and which we were directed to carry into effect, have received a due portion of our attention, and the most of them, we are pleased to announce, have been satisfactorily executed.

A communication from Robert Lemmon, Esq one of the auctioneers within the city of Baltimore, under the authority of the state, was received by us on the 23d day of July last, stating that a suit had been instituted against him by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, for the recovery of a fine of $500, for not complying with their ordinance, then recently passed, for the regulation of sales by auction; and calling on us (as the measure was an attack both on the law and revenue of the state,) to direct our law officer to resist it at the state's cost. This request appearing to us reasonable and proper, we directed the Clerk of the Council to apprise Mr. Lemmon that it would be complied with, and by our direction the letter of which the document marked No. 11 is a copy, was addressed to the Attorney General.

We have not received an official copy of the ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, regulating sales by auction, referred to in the letter of Mr. Lemmon, nor any other evidence of their proceedings under it.—But we have reason to believe that in addition to the prosecution of auctioneers for selling under the authority of the state, that the Mayor and City Council have licensed auctioneers, who are selling under their authority in violation of the law of the state.

We have deemed it our duty to submit this subject to your consideration, with the view to such further legislation as you may deem necessary for preserving the revenue arising from this source, and for maintaining and enforcing the state law.

We transmit herewith some claims for militia services in Cecil county, which not having authority under existing laws to settle, we submit for your consideration.

Since the last session of the General Assembly, we have received from the Governors of the states of New York and Maine, copies of sundry resolutions passed by the Legislatures of those states in relation to slavery and abolitionism, which in conformity with the requests accompanying said resolutions, we herewith transmit for your consideration.

The indications from various quarters of a disposition to press upon the public attention the subject of slavery, with a view to its abolition, which have been occasionally manifested for many years past, have, within the last few years, assumed an aspect and importance vitally affecting the people of the States in which a slave population exists to any considerable extent.

Whatever opinions may be entertained by others, or by us, of slavery in the abstract, the circumstances under which it exists in the States of the Union, are such as to forbid a general emancipation, even if the desire to accomplish it were universal, while the present ameliorated condition and general treatment of slaves are such, as to leave the friends and advocates of emancipation no hope of bettering their condition gen rally by the success of their exertions. It is believed that most erroneous notions on this subject, particularly as relates to the condition and treatment of slaves, generally entertained in the non slave-holding sections of the country, and that it is the superficial and superficial view taken of the matter, by such of the citizens of non slave-holding states, as are actuated by good and benevolent intentions, that has caused the misguided zeal and efforts which have become so threatening in their consequences. They have looked principally to the evils they supposed them to be remedied, without due consideration, or being (from their local situations,) qualified to form just conceptions of the many and various difficulties to be encountered, and dangers to be apprehended, in carrying into effect their wishes and views. We have no doubt, but that a large portion of our fellow citizens who have engaged in, and are zealously pursuing measures to effect a general emancipation of slaves, are actuated by the best motives, and conscientiously believe themselves to be performing a sacred duty of humanity; but we are equally confident, that many of the most intemperate and noisy declaimers upon the subject, are influenced by very different motives.

We cannot permit ourselves to believe, that it is the deliberate purpose of any respectable portion of the people of the United States, much less of the constituted authorities of the General or any State Government to infringe the rights of the States, where slavery exists, or of the citizens holding slaves; yet it cannot be denied, and ought not to be concealed, that opinions have been expressed as well in Congress, as in, if not by several State Legislatures, which look to the adoption of some measure by the general Government upon this subject, which cannot be effected, but in violation of the rights and privileges of both: for it is a matter with which that Government has nothing to do, and with which it can, in no manner interfere, without overstepping the bounds of its authority, and trespassing upon rights, and assuming powers never conceded to it.

We have deemed it our duty, to invite your particular attention to this exciting subject, and to express frankly, our views of its most vital importance, and earnestly recommend that it be distinctly made known, that even not recognize in any of our sister States, or their citizens, any right to interfere with our slaves: and that we unequivocally deny any authority in the general Government to legislate upon the subject of their emancipation, or to disturb our rights of property in them, in any manner whatsoever.

It is confidently hoped and believed, that a temperate, yet firm and determined expression of the unanimous resolution of the slave-holding states, to adhere to and vindicate their rights on this subject, against all extraneous interference, would have a salutary effect in awakening all calm thinking, and well intentioned abolitionists, (and without their countenance and aid, the evil mentioned would be impotent, and soon cease their efforts,) to such a deliberate reconsideration and thorough examination of the whole subject in all its aspects and tendencies, as would induce them to cease their illusions—fruitless of any good but tending to much mischief, and to produce restlessness, dissatisfaction, inquietude, and consequent insubordination of slaves, and vexation, alarm and increased rigour on the part of masters.

We are encouraged to entertain this hope with much confidence, by the fact which we have understood and believe to be true, that almost every intelligent gentleman from any of the non-slaveholding States, who has left home friendly to the abolition cause, and travelled extensively in the South, has had his mind changed and withdrawn his countenance and support from that cause. Such has been nearly the uniform result of becoming acquainted fully, in any way, with the true state and general condition of slaves in the United States, and the various circumstances which render general emancipation impracticable, and the movements and proceedings with that view irritating to masters, prejudicial to slaves, and altogether impolitic and unwarrantable.

Having thus, in a cursory manner, alluded to the various subjects to which we considered it proper to direct your attention, we cannot conclude this communication without the expression of our earnest hope that all your deliberations may be characterized by wisdom, moderation and firmness; and that they may redound to the interest, the prosperity, and glory of the State. Maryland, at this moment, occupies a most conspicuous stand among her sisters of the Union. She has witnessed the rapid strides to wealth and power in most of the States, which have distinguished the last few years, and has assembly determined to enter the lists of competition. We need not dwell at length upon the advantages of her geographical position. They are such as must force themselves upon the attention of every individual who bestows the smallest reflection on the subject. It is, therefore, the clearest dictates of a wise policy, and no less the duty of a prudent Legislature, that these advantages with which the God of nature has blessed us, should be made instrumental in advancing the power and welfare of the State. To effect these great and paramount objects, the internal improvement law of last May session was passed; and we cannot refrain from expressing it as our deliberate conviction, that the designs of that most liberal and beneficent act, will be most successfully achieved before the lapse of many years, should nothing occur to blight the animating prospects which we now enjoy. Upon the completion of the great works of improvement designed to connect the Chesapeake with the waters of the Ohio, a new era will commence in our State, an era of increasing population, and of agricultural, manufacturing and commercial prosperity, such as we have never yet known. Under these circumstances, we hope that no measures will be taken which might retard this auspicious event, but on the contrary, that all will unite to hasten its approach, as all are deeply interested in its consummation.

We have only to add, gentlemen, that we shall be found ever ready to co-operate with you in any measure likely to advance the interests and welfare of the people of the State, and to communicate to you such information as may be required, on subjects pertaining to this department of the Government.

With the highest consideration,
We have the honour to be,
Your Obd't. Serv'ts.
THO. W. VEAZEY.

Walter R. C. Worthington
vs.
Fielder Bowie, Thomas Lyles, William Smith, and Margaret his Wife, and others.

THE bill filed in this case in substance states, that Fielder Bowie, one of the defendants, sometime in the year 1817 purchased of a certain David Carcaud, now deceased, two tracts or parcels of land lying in Prince George's county, in the state of Maryland, called "Leith" and "Discovery," containing the first two hundred acres, and the last eight acres and one half of an acre, for the sum of $5,373—that the whole of the said purchase money has been paid, but that no deed of said lands was ever made by said Carcaud to said Bowie—that complainant has since become the purchaser of both of said parcels of land at a sale made by the Sheriff of Prince George's county, of the property of said Bowie, and has fully paid the purchase money thereof.

The bill further states, that the said David Carcaud died leaving two children, William M Carcaud and Sarah Carcaud, his heirs at law, and legal representatives—That William M Carcaud, the son of David Carcaud, has also departed this life, leaving an only son, David Carcaud, Junior, who is also dead, leaving the following children, all of whom are minors, his heirs at law, to wit: David Carcaud, Thomas Carcaud, Gilbert Carcaud, William Carcaud, and Mary Letitia Carcaud, now residing in Calvert county—That Sarah Carcaud, the daughter of David Carcaud, intermarried with a certain Thomas H Lyles, and that she and her said husband have also departed this life, leaving the following children their heirs at law, to wit: David C. Lyles, Henry Lyles, William C. Lyles, Thomas Lyles, and Margaret Lyles—That David C. Lyles is also dead, leaving the following minor children, his heirs at law, George D. Lyles, Dennis Lyles, and Maria Lyles, residing in Anne Arundel county—That Henry Lyles is living in Calvert county, and William C. Lyles in Anne Arundel county—That Thomas Lyles is now residing in the state of Ohio, and that Margaret Lyles, having intermarried with one William Smith, is now with her said husband residing in the state of Mississippi.

The object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of the aforesaid lands to the complainant.

It is thereupon ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the first day of February next, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, that they may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the tenth day of May next, to answer the premises, and shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Richard Cromwell
vs.
Nancy Johnson and others.

THE object of this suit is to obtain a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged lands mentioned in the proceedings, situated in Anne Arundel county, or to relieve the complainant of a certain debt therein mentioned.

The bill states, that one Nancy Johnson was, in or about the year eighteen hundred and seventeen, appointed the guardian of one Eleanora Sewell, then an infant, under the age of sixteen years—that the complainant became a security upon the guardian's bond of the said Nancy—that to secure the complainant against all liabilities which he might incur as security aforesaid, the said Nancy conveyed to him a certain tract or parcel of land situate in Anne Arundel county, containing two hundred and seventeen and two-eighths acres, more or less, which was conveyed to said Nancy (then named Nancy Sewell) by a certain Rezin Hammond of Rezin—that a part of said two hundred and seventeen and two-eighths acres have been conveyed absolutely to the complainant—that said Eleanora has now arrived at the age of eighteen years—that the sum of nine hundred and twenty-three dollars are due from said Nancy Johnson as guardian to the said Eleanora, and is unpaid, and that the said complainant is liable for the said sum of money upon the said guardian's bond—and that suit has been brought for the same against this complainant—and the said bill and its amendments state, that the said land, or so much of it as has not been absolutely conveyed to the complainant, has been sold to one Charles Salmon and by him sold to one Frederick Barkman, and that said Salmon has departed this life, and left Edward W. Salmon, Charles W Salmon, Ann M. K. Salmon, Hamilton H. Salmon, Warren L. Salmon, Simon B. Salmon, Philip A Salmon, and Eliza A Salmon, his heirs at law, all of whom are infants under the age of twenty-one years.

It appearing from the petition of the complainant in this cause, that one of the defendants (Charles W. Salmon) is out a resident of this state, it is thereupon ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of January next, give notice to the said Charles W Salmon of the object and substance of this bill, and warn him to appear in this court in person, or by guardian, on or before the 2d day of May next, to answer the premises, and shew cause, if any he has, why a decree should not pass as prayed

VALUABLE PROPERTY

FOR SALE.

THE subscribers offer for sale the whole of his property in the city of Annapolis, to wit:

THE DWELLING HOUSE and Premises where he now resides, which is in complete repair, and calculated for a large family; there are twelve spacious Rooms, eight of which have fire places; the Cellars are perfectly dry, and all newly paved; there are nearly five acres of Ground attached to the premises, with every necessary out building, a large Stable sufficient for twelve Horses, Carriage House, Smoke-House, Dairy, and Wash-House, an excellent Pump of pure Water in the yard; the Garden, which is large, abounds in the most choice selection of Fruit, and with Shrubbery of every description. This property is situated near the Government-House, lately owned and occupied by Gen. Richard Harwood of Thos; the whole is in fee simple, and the title indisputable.

I will also sell the House and Premises, situate on Church street, where I lately resided, and at present occupied by Richard W. Gill, Esq.: this house is in excellent repair, and well calculated for a large genteel family; there are nine Rooms, and seven fire places, every necessary out building attached to the lot; large dry Cellars under the whole house. This property is immediately in the centre of the city, and for health and comfort is not surpassed by any situation in Annapolis. The whole is in fee simple, and title indisputable.

Also, Plattsburg, containing together with some contiguous Lots, seventeen or eighteen acres, now in an excellent state of cultivation, a large Garden attached, with every variety of Shrubbery and Fruit, the whole recently enclosed with substantial locust and red cedar posts and chesnut rails; there are also upon the premises a strong Barn and Stabling, with other necessary out houses. This property adjoins the College Enclosure, and near the residence of the late Mrs Steele, and is bounded by Severn River; the whole in fee simple and title indisputable.

I will also sell the FARM near Annapolis, lately owned by Charles Carroll, Esq., supposed to contain fourteen hundred and eighty acres of Land, more or less; this estate is susceptible of improvement by clover and plaster, and is well adapted to the growing of Indian Corn, Tobacco, and all kinds of small grain; there are large quantities of Wood and Timber of every description, Oak, Hickory, Walnut, Locust, red Cedar, and an inexhaustable source of Pine for cord wood or timber. There are two BRICK HOUSES upon the premises, one a large Dwelling House; the other contains Machinery for a Mill of Horse power, with all the fixtures complete. There are also every other out house necessary, such as Barn, with Sheds all round for Stabling, Corn House, Smoke House, Quarters for Servants, Dairy, Pigeon House, and an excellent Cellar and Granary, a large Apple Orchard, and a Meadow of forty acres, which at a small expense may be made to yield large crops of Hay for market. This property is also in fee simple, and title indisputable.

I will also sell three fine Horses, calculated for the saddle or draft, together with Carts, Ploughs, Harrows, and other implements of husbandry. I will also sell about forty head of Sheep, and eight Milch Cows; also a neat Family Carriage, calculated for one or two horses. Persons who may be disposed to purchase will of course view the premises, which will be shown by myself, or my sons, and every information given that may be required. Letters post paid will reach me at Annapolis, which shall be attended to The terms of sale shall be liberal and accommodating. I will divide the Farm into small tenements to suit purchasers. Persons who may be disposed to engage in the wood and timber business, would find it advantageous to purchase this estate——excellent Landings on South River and Severn—The estate runs to both rivers, and should the Canal ever be made, as contemplated, from Washington to Annapolis, it must necessarily pass through this estate to reach the waters of the Severn. I will sell a great bargain in the whole, or any part of the property here advertised, and to capitalists who desire to make investments an excellent opportunity is offered.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

Office of the Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has it volved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest—or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprize. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention.—It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

E. A. SOBEY, & Co.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library,

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individuals and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas, has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their pious duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N B Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession:

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Blaywarden's True Church of Christ shown; Hawarden's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholici, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr M'Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

Fourth Year [illegible] Library

PROSPECTUS [illegible] NEW VOL.

[illegible]

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public the original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty puerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a talking point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty octavo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the Octavo works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty octavo works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated cabinet forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or [illegible] of five individuals outam five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

THIS periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

 A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $30 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

BY E. L. BULWER.

Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of

The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Marryatt, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godey's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Marryatt, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its selections are made from the whole ring of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a gentleman of high talent about to travel in Europe.—The subscription price is $2 per annum, payable in advance, or three copies for $5.

Saturday News and Bulwer or Marryatt's Novels can be had for $5.

All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to

L. A. GODEY & Co.,
100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, now in the leading presses of this city:—

SATURDAY NEWS.—The weekly paper with the above title, which we first told a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godey, McMichael & Neal. Such a trio never got together before.—Neal and McMichael can all for writing, and Godey knows all for publishing. A capital job they made of their first number, worthy of what was promised. We prophesy for them great success, and for their readers great satisfaction.—United States Gazette.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS.—We have been favored with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to [illegible]. The literary matter is far above the [illegible] standard and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspaper of the British metropolis. Sustained in the same spirit, the News will soon win deserved patronage and enviable reputation. An amusing extract will be found in a subsequent column.—Enquirer and Courier.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.—The first number of a new weekly paper with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in that city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, formerly issued by Mr Charles Alexander, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A Godey, J C Neal, and M McMichael, three gentlemen very favourably known as possessing the requisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.—Baltimore Gazette.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godey, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their sheet. The Gentleman's Vade Mecum has been transferred to Messrs. Godey & Co., and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter, in addition to that heretofore embodied in the Vade Mecum. We intended to publish their prospectus today, but have been prevented by want of room.—Berks and Schuylkill Journal.

SATURDAY NEWS.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title edited by Louis A Godey, conductor of the Lady's Book; Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvanian and Morton McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should conclude that it will far exceed, for original matter, and new selections, any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is not a reprint of any other Gazette, which is too much the case with the mammoth sheets of that city.—Newcastle Gazette.

The first number of the Philadelphia Saturday News has been received at this office, and promises to be one of the very best weekly papers in the Union. The number before us is very creditable to the enterprising publisher and editors, its contents being various, entertaining and instructive. Those who wish a good family paper from the city, cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godey, and edited by Morton McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Esqrs.—Darby Republican.

SATURDAY NEWS.—The new [illegible] advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unequivocally on the "go ahead" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godey, whose Lady's Book we have in times past labored to make our fair readers nearly in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "needful." Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our police head is by Mr. Neal, and is in his inimitable style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of sly and quiet humour.—Saturday Courier.

THE THIRD VOLUME OF

THE CULTIVATOR

WILL be commenced on the first of March next. The terms will continue to be FIFTY CENTS per annum, payable in advance.

We tender our thanks to gentlemen who have kindly aided in the circulation of the CULTIVATOR, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their good offices in its behalf.—If this paper enables one man, by the information it affords him, to add to the profits of his farm ten dollars a year,—and we mean to be modest in our supposition,—it will benefit ten men who take it one hundred dollars—and it will effect the most good in districts and towns where it has the greatest subscription; and hence every intelligent man who wishes to promote the interests of his neighbourhood, (and who does not?) will be able to do so by increasing its circulation.

☞ The Cultivator is a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, devoted to Agricultural improvement.

THE NEW-YORKER—QUARTO FORM—NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will comprise two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and cotemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF

Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote, and Facetiæ.

EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS

GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year TWO volumes, of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Two Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote, and Facetiæ, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilirating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

☞ The "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stiched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for FIVE dollars. ☞ When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. ☞ Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid.)

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union:" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 10th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is only appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

☞ Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

Mr. Richardson, submitted the following order;

Ordered, That the commissioners acting under the provisions of a law passed at the last annual session of the General Assembly, for the benefit of certain sufferers by Riots, and known as the indemnity act, be requested forthwith to furnish to this House, a schedule of the various items for the destruction of which, indemnity has been allowed, stating to whom they belonged, with the amount of their valuation, and the testimone upon which they affixed said value; with such other information in their possession as may immediately relate to this subject.

Which was twice read and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hood,

The house then adjourned.

Monday, Jan. 2.

Mr. Shower presented a petition of sundry citizens of the third collection district of Baltimore county, praying that John Lammott, late collector, may have further time to complete his collections.

And Mr. Parry presented two memorials of sundry citizens of Allegany county, relative to trespasses in Allegany county, and for other purposes;

The hour of twelve having arrived, the house proceeded to the election of a Governor, and the ballots of the members being collected in the ballot box, it was sealed up and delivered to the committee appointed on the part of the House, to meet the committee appointed on the part of the Senate, to count the joint ballot of both Houses, and report the result.

They having retired to the conference room, after a short time, returned and reported, that on counting the joint ballot of both houses, they had found there were altogether eighty one votes taken, of which number Thomas W. Veazey, Esq. received seventy votes, two scattering, and nine blank ballots.

Whereupon it was Resolved, that Thomas W. Veazey, Esq., be and he is hereby declared to be duly elected Governor of the State of Maryland for the ensuing year.

Mr. Hopewell, moved that the house adjourn; Determined in the negative.

Mr. Ely, moved that the house adjourn, Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. McLean presented a memorial of the president and directors of the Baltimore and Susquehanna rail road company, praying for further aid from the state, in the manner therein mentioned.

Mr. McLean also presented a petition of Elizabeth Harvey, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be divorced from her husband, Joseph Harvey.

Mr. Buchanan obtained leave, to bring in a bill to secure to mechanics and labourers a lien upon all property on which they may erect houses, mills, barns and other tenements, and also upon the houses, mills, barns or tenements so erected.

On motion of Mr. Worthington,

Ordered, that the committee on education inquire into the expediency of establishing a general system of education in this state, and report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Perry submitted the following order:

Ordered, that the committee on education take into consideration the propriety of appropriating the proceeds or interest of the surplus revenue awarded to this state by the general government to the purpose of education;

Which was twice read.

Mr. Alexander moved to amend said order by striking out the words 'committee on education,' and inserting in lieu thereof, 'committee on ways and means'

Mr. Worthington called for a division of the question, which was put on striking out, and determined in the negative.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the order,

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Carpenter, chairman of the committee on divorces, reported a bill to divorce Harriet Ridgely, of Baltimore county, from her husband Greenbury Ridgely.

Mr. Henderson reported a bill to authorise Samuel McBride to bring into this state a slave for a term of years;

An additional supplement to an act for the benefit of the heirs of Mary Hackett;

And, a bill to confirm an act to alter and amend the constitution and form of government of this state, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates from the city of Baltimore.

On motion of Mr. Culbreth,

Ordered, That Joseph I. Speed, Esq. be, and he is hereby unanimously reappointed State Director on the part of this house, in the Bank of Baltimore, for the present year.

On motion of Mr. Ely, the house took up for consideration the order submitted by Mr. Culbreth on yesterday, in relation to a temporary investment of that part of the surplus revenue of the United States, to be deposited with this state;

Mr. Ely moved to amend said order, by striking out the word "temporary;" Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred, and was put upon the adoption of said order; Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Parran submitted the following preamble and order:

Whereas, it has been represented to this General Assembly that warrants have been granted to revolutionary pensioners for vacant lands lying and being in Allegany county; and whereas it appears there is no vacant land belonging to the State in said county to cover said warrants or grants; therefore,

Ordered, That the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims be instructed to enquire into the expediency of allowing to the holders of such warrants or grants, a reasonable compensation for the same in money, and report by bill or otherwise to this house.

Which was twice read and adopted.

Mr. Harris submitted the following message:

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the concurrence of your honourable body, to fix the time for the adjournment of the present session of the General Assembly on the 20th of February next. It is the belief of this house that this may take place at the time mentioned, with convenience to the members, and without violating the rights or injuring the interests of the people. The chief cause of protracted sessions, in our opinion, has been the slowness with which the people have heretofore presented their business for the action of the Legislature, in consequence of which, much time in the early part of the session has been lost. Let it be early understood by the people that the time of adjournment is fixed, and they will, without delay, send in the business upon which they may wish our action.

Which was read; and,

On motion of Mr. Kerr, ordered to lie on the table.

The house then adjourned.

Wednesday, Jan. 4th.

Mr. Kershner presented a petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying a special act of insolvency for the benefit of John Frame, an insolvent debtor of said county.

On motion of Mr. Dirk,

Ordered, That the committee on ways and means enquire into the expediency of appropriating the money to be received from the general government into a State or Real Estate Bank, for the benefit of the Landed interest of this state, and report by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Mr. Brengle,

Ordered, That a petition and memorial of sundry citizens of parts of Frederick and Baltimore counties, asking the erection of "Carroll county," and which was taken from the files of this house at the last session by leave thereof, be returned and placed on the files of this house.

Mr. Dawson submitted the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate:

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We propose, with the concurrence of your honourable body, the appointment of a joint committee of three members of the Senate, and three members of the House of Delegates, to enquire into the practicability, probable cost and expediency of warming the Senate chamber, the hall of the House of Delegates, and the offices attached to them respectively, the Council Chamber, and all other apartments of the State House occupied and used for public purposes, or any one or more of them, by means of heated air, introduced by flues, or by any other mode which shall promote the comfort of the members of the Legislature and the other members and officers of the government, and shall be calculated to lessen the annual cost of fuel to the state—and that said committee have leave to report by bill or otherwise. We have appointed Messrs. Dawson, Iglehart and Hicks, the committee on the part of this house.

Mr. Maulsby asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill, entitled, an act declaratory of the law concerning contempts of the court in this state;

Which was read, and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

The hour having arrived for taking up the orders of the day, the house proceeded to consider the first order of the day, being the bill reported by Mr. Brengle, to confirm an act for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for erecting a new one by the name of "Carroll."

On motion of Mr. Ely, the house was called, and the door-keeper sent for the absent members, who, after a short time had elapsed, returned and reported that he had notified the absent members that their attendance in the house was required.

The house then proceeded to consider said bill.

Mr. Worthington moved to postpone said bill until Wednesday the 18th inst. Determined in the negative.

Mr. Ely then moved to postpone said bill until Wednesday next, the 11th inst. Resolved in the affirmative.

The house then adjourned.

Thursday, Jan. 5th.

Mr. Buchanan submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the select committee appointed on the 28th ultimo, to take into consideration what alterations and amendments, if any, of the Constitution, may be necessary or expedient, be instructed to enquire into the expediency of providing by bill or otherwise, to abolish the present mode of electing the Senate of this state, and to provide for the election of one Senator from each county, to be elected immediately by the people, for the term of three years, to have the Senate so classed that one third of the body shall retire every year, unless re-elected by their constituents; and,

Also, to abolish the Council to the Governor—and,

Also, to abolish the High Court of Chancery—and,

Also, to limit the tenure of office of Clerks and Registers of Wills, hereafter to be appointed—and,

Also, to elect the Governor by the people—and,

Also, to reduce the number of delegates from each county, three.

Which was twice read.

Mr. McLean moved to amend said order by referring that part of said order which relates to abolishing the High Court of Chancery," to the committee on grievances and courts of justice;

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ridgely then moved that said order be rejected;

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. McLean presented a memorial of the Farmers and Planters Bank of Baltimore, praying to be relieved from a certain part of the state bonds, for the reasons therein mentioned.

Mr McLean from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, reported a bill relating to limited partnerships in this state.

Mr Primrose, seconded by two other members that voted in the majority, moved to reconsider the vote of the house, upon the order submitted by Mr. Buchanan this morning, in relation to certain alterations and amendments in the constitution.

On the question being put, will the house reconsider their vote,

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The house then adjourned.

Friday, January 6th.

Mr. Ridgely presented a petition of the Patapsco Bank of Maryland, praying a supplement to their charter;

Mr. Hood presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Anne Arundel counties, praying for opening a road therein mentioned;

The bill from the Senate entitled, an act to confirm an act entitled, an act to alter and amend the constitution and form of government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates from the city of Baltimore, was taken up for consideration;

Mr. Harris moved to lay said bill on the table; Determined in the negative.

The house then resumed the consideration of the unfinished business, being the order submitted by Mr. Buchanan in relation to certain alterations and amendments in the constitution.

Mr. Ridgely having withdrawn his motion for the rejection of said order.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the order,

Mr. Gough offered as a substitute for said order, the following:

Ordered, That the select committee on the constitution be requested to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill or bills amendatory of the constitution, so that the Senate shall consist of one member from each county and one from the city of Baltimore, to be chosen immediately by the people, to serve for four years; each county to elect its own Senator at the October election every fourth year—And also into the expediency of electing members of the House of Delegates annually, as at present, and to be distributed among the different counties and the city of Baltimore as follows: to the county with the largest population, six delegates; by which ratio the other counties to be apportioned with this proviso, that no county should have less than two delegates, and Baltimore city, to have a delegation equal to the largest county, or on some other more equitable basis than at present. And also into the expediency of abolishing the present Executive Council, and the Governor hereafter to be elected immediately by the people, every second year. And in all other matters of appointment, to office, or in the discharge of such other duties as he is at present required to perform by and with the advice of the Council, he shall hereafter perform by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, which shall in all things stand in the place of the present Executive Council.

The clerk of the county court and court of appeals to be appointed as they now are by their respective courts, for the term of seven years.

The register of wills to be elected by the people, for seven years, with this proviso, that neither the clerks nor register now in office shall be removed in any other manner than that provided in the present constitution,

Which was twice read.

Mr. Alexander, moved to amend said substitute by inserting after the words "Baltimore city," the words "and one from the city of Annapolis,"

Mr Gough accepted the amendment.

Mr. Ford, then moved to lay the order and substitute on the table,

Resolved in the affirmative;

The house then resumed the consideration of the bill from the Senate, entitled, an act to confirm an act, entitled an act to alter and amend the constitution and form of government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates from the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Crisfield, moved to postpone said bill, and make it the order of the day for Wednesday next, the 11th inst.

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Carpenter, then moved to postpone said bill, and make it the order of the day for Monday next, 9th inst.

Determined in the negative.

The said bill was then read the second time, and the question put, shall the said bill pass, resolved in the affirmative.

The hour having arrived for taking up the orders of the day, the house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Brengle, entitled, an act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to alter and amend the constitution and form of government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates from the city of Baltimore, passed at December session, 1835, chapter 98.

On motion of Mr. Brengle, said bill was ordered to lie on the table.

The bill reported by Mr. Rentch, entitled, a further supplement to the act, to provide for electing commissioners for Washington county, and prescribing their powers and duties—and

The bill reported by Mr. Carpenter, for the revocation of the real and personal property in Charles county, were severally taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Coombs,

The house then adjourned.

Saturday, January 7th.

Mr. Perry, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Allegany county, praying the passage of an act, incorporating a Bank to be called "The Union Bank of Allegany."

Mr. Boyd, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled an act for the suppression of fraud in the management of Banks in this State,

On motion of Mr. Worthington,

Ordered, That the committee on the coloured population enquire into the expediency of amending the laws relating to free negroes and slaves, so to prevent the unlawful assemblages of the same, either by day or night, and also into the expediency of restraining, or prohibiting by law, the circulation or distribution of incendiary handbills or pamphlets, and report by bill or otherwise.

The bill reported by Mr. Ridgely, entitled, an act supplemental to an act entitled, an act for the relief of the heirs of Jane White, late of the city of Baltimore, was taken up for consideration;

On motion of Mr. Ridgely, said bill was laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Tuesday next, the 10th instat.

On motion of Mr. Worthington,

The house took up for consideration the bill from the Senate, entitled, an act to provide for taking the sense of the people of Baltimore county on the propriety of separating said county from the city of Baltimore;

Mr. Brengle moved to postpone said bill until Saturday next, the 14th instant;

Determined in the negative.

The said bill was then read the second time, and passed.

The clerk of the Senate returned the additional supplement to the act to provide for the public instruction of youth in primary schools throughout this State, endorsed "will pass," ordered to be engrossed; also,

On motion of Mr Ridgely,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Patapsco Bank of Maryland;

On motion of Mr. Ridgely,

Said bill was referred to the committee on corporations.

On motion of Mr. McLean,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by him entitled, a further supplement to the act to incorporate the George's Creek Mining Company.

The said bill was then read the second time, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Gough,

The house adjourned until Monday morning.

Monday, Jan. 9th.

The house proceeded to ballot for a Speaker, pro tempore. On counting the ballots, it appeared that James D. Carpenter, Esquire, was elected.

The Speaker laid before the house a communication from Richard Lemmon, Robert Barry and James Cheston, Esqrs. Commissioners under the Indemnity laws of December session 1835, with the written testimony on which as Commissioners they founded their awards to the several individuals.

Which was read and referred to a select committee composed of Messrs. Ridgely, Crisfield, Maulsby, Tuck, and Harding.

The Clerk of the Senate returned a further supplement to the act, to provide for electing Commissioners for Washington county, and prescribing their powers and duties,

Also, the bill, for the relief of John Hancock,

Also, the bill, for the revaluation of the real and personal property in Charles county,

Also, the bill, in favour of John Frame, of Washington county, severally endorsed "will pass," and severally ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Perry presented a memorial of Henry Myers and others, of Allegany county, praying an act to make valid an instrument of writing therein mentioned.

Mr. Crisfield presented a memoral of the Bank of Salisbury, praying the passage of a supplement to its charter to increase its capital stock;

Mr. Ridgely presented a petition of William Hughes, of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of an act to make valid a deed therein mentioned;

Mr. Harding presented a petition of Edward Clark, of Montgomery county, praying the passage of an act authorising him to bring into this State, two negro slaves.

Mr. Harding also presented a petition of Martha Riley, of Montgomery county, praying that the levy court of said county may be authorised to levy a sum of money for her use.

Mr. Brengle presented a petition of Thomas Sims and others, praying the passage of an act providing a donation to a school therein mentioned, out of the school fund of Frederick county;

Mr. Gough presented a petition of John Janna, of Harford county, praying the redress of certain grievances.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore city, praying for a repeal of the act passed at the May session of 1835, chapter 348, respecting the inspection of salted fish;

Mr. Matthias presented a petition of Elizabeth Bomgardner, of Federick county, praying to be divorced.

Mr. Palmer presented a petition of Ann Wright, of Queen Anne's county, praying for remuneration for services rendered by Col. Samuel T. Wright, her husband, in the war of the revolution;

On motion of Mr. Maulsby,

Ordered, That the committee on claims, enquire into the expediency of causing Lamps to be placed in front of the State House, and at each of the entries.

Mr Buchanan, submitted the following order,

Ordered, That the Speaker of this House appoint a committee of Seven, whose duty it shall be to enquire into the present Police of the Maryland Penitentiary, the description of mechanical arts at this time carried on in that establishment, and how far their promotion conflicts with the rights and interest of the Mechanics of this State—what amount of revenue is annually derived from Mechanical labour in said Penitentiary, and the cash expenditures incident thereto; and all such other information connected with said Penitentiary as said committee may deem essentially necessary to the interests of this State.

Which was read, and

On motion of Mr. Maulsby, ordered to lie on the table.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill to divorce Harriet Ridgely, of Baltimore county, from her husband Greenbury Ridgely, endorsed, "will pass," ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the resolution of Ann Millard, widow of Joshua Millard, deceased "assented to," ordered to be engrossed;

And delivered a bill originated in and passed by the Senate, to make valid a certain deed therein mentioned;

On motion of Mr Primrose,

The house then adjourned.

IN CHANCERY,

30th December 1836.

vs.

Fielder Bowie, Thomas Lyles, William Smith, and Margaret his Wife, and others.

THE bill filed in this case in substance states, that Fielder Bowie, one of the defendants, sometime in the year 1817 purchased of a certain David Carcaud, now deceased, two tracts or parcels of land lying in Prince George's county, in the state of Maryland, called "Leith" and "Discovery," containing the first two hundred acres, and the last eight acres and one half of an acre, for the sum of $5,575—that the whole of the said purchase money has been paid, but that no deed of said lands was ever made by said Carcaud to said Bowie—that complainant has since become the purchaser of both of said parcels of land at a sale made by the Sheriff of Prince George's county, of the property of said Bowie, and has fully paid the purchase money thereof.

The bill further states, that the said David Carcaud died leaving two children, William M Carcaud and Sarah Carcaud, his heirs at law, and legal representatives—That William M. Carcaud, the son of David Carcaud, has also departed this life, leaving an only son, David Carcaud, Junior, who is also dead, leaving the following children, all of whom are minors, his heirs at law, to wit: David Carcaud, Thomas Carcaud, Gilbert Carcaud, William Carcaud, and Mary Lettitia Carcaud, now residing in Calvert county—That Sarah Carcaud, the daughter of David Carcaud, intermarried with a certain Thomas H Lyles, and that she and her said husband have also departed this life, leaving the following children their heirs at law, to wit: David C. Lyles, Henry Lyles, William C. Lyles, Thomas Lyles, and Margaret Lyles—That David C. Lyles is also dead, leaving the following minor children, his heirs at law, George D. Lyles, Dennis Lyles, and Maria Lyles, residing in Anne Arundel county—That Henry Lyles is living in Calvert county, and William C. Lyles in Anne Arundel county—That Thomas Lyles is now residing in the state of Ohio, and that Margaret Lyles, having intermarried with one William Smith, is now with her said husband residing in the state of Mississippi.

The object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of the aforesaid lands to the complainant.

It is thereupon ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the first day of February next, give notice to the said non resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, that they may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the tenth day of May next, to answer the premises, and shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, January 12, 1837.

The Annual Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room of said city on Thursday, the 9th of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock. A variety of articles will be exhibited for sale. Industry and skill, taste and fancy are combining their powers to produce a variety which may be pleasing and attractive to the spectators. Many a benevolent heart is devising, and many a kind hand employed in executing something to aid the Fair; and the Managers give this early notice, that others, who perhaps have not yet thought of it, may understand that now is the time to arise for our help. Our hopes are bright, our expectations sanguine, that the result will prove as gratifying as that which has followed similar efforts. Every exertion will be made to have the exhibition as pleasing to the eye as possible; but it is to the heart that we make our appeal, and we trust that those who visit it, will look beyond that which meets the outward vision, to the object for which it is set forth—an object which cannot be known without being appreciated. How full of sorrow is the name of, orphan! If rank and wealth and honour surround life's childhood, each and all of them can offer no equivalent for the tender smile, the fond endearment, the watching, ceaseless care of parental love; and when all these are wanting, sad indeed is the situation of the helpless outcast! It is for such we plead, for such we solicit your compassion Friends and patrons, citizens and strangers, we feel assured that you will give to the relief of the orphan. Yes, you will, for you have not forgotten that it is written, "a Father of the fatherless is God, in his holy habitation," and verily may you believe that inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these, you have done it unto him."

Communicated.

As the time is approaching when the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, and the county of Anne-Arundel, will have to vote for two representatives to the next Congress, it cannot be considered premature to call the attention of the voters of the district to such persons as are qualified and worthy to receive their suffrages, as it may conduce to a more distinct expression of the public voice.

Without intending, in any manner, to detract from the pretentions of the respectable gentlemen who now represent the District in Congress, I take the liberty to mention the name of Gen. Wm. H. Marriott, and hope that he will consent to be a candidate.

Gen. Marriott is well known to the people. His long service in the Legislature—his having been elected Speaker of the House of Delegates and President of the Senate, are evidences of his capacity for business, and the high estimation in which he was held when a member of the Legislature.

He is liberal in his politics, kind and generous in his feelings, and respectful in his deportment. These qualities, public and private, will strongly recommend him to the people of the District as a suitable person to represent them in the next Congress.

A VOTER.

COURT OF APPEALS, W. S. December Term, 1836.

Tuesday, January 10th, 1837.—On motion, W. H. Collins and Daniel P. Barnard, Esqrs. of Baltimore, were admitted Attorneys of this Court.

Robert Jones, of Geo. vs. James Stewart's Lessee. The argument in this cause was commenced by R. N. Martin for the Appellant, and Collins for the Appellee.

Wednesday, January 11th.—The same cause was continued by Collins and W. W. Handy for the Appellee.

The Military Court of Inquiry has re-assembled at Frederick, but during the past week there was but little business transacted. On Friday Gen. GAINES made his protest against Gen. Macomb as a member of the Court. The Herald says that its reception occasioned much animation in Court.

The following officers are now in Frederick: Gen. Macomb, Gen. Atkinson, Gen Scott, Col. De Peyster, Lieut. Morris, Lieut. Lee, General Gaines, Capt. McCall, Capt. Hitchcock.

TRIAL OF RICHARD M. WHITE.

The second trial of R. H. White, for setting fire to the Treasury building was commenced on Friday last, agreeably to appointment by the Court. A new Jury was empannelled in the case, after nearly two hours had been spent in examining the gentlemen who were summoned as to their fitness to serve upon the pannel. A great number was set aside, it appearing that they had expressed a decided opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner. Before the witnesses were examined and the trial went on, the Court made some very pointed remarks, on the impropriety of publishing any reports of trials before the verdict of the Jury had been returned, and it was intimated to the reporters then present, that such a course must hereafter be avoided.

The Court-room was crowded on Friday and Saturday to hear the evidence submitted in the very important case. All the witnesses who testified for the United States on the first trial of Richard H. White, have been again examined. Harry White, the brother of the prisoner, was for nearly an hour upon the stand on Saturday, and underwent a severe cross-examination from the District Attorney. Some new witnesses have been examined, and the trial seems to have lost nothing of its interest, although most of the witnesses have been already once examined on the same points. The prisoner is seated by the side of his counsel, the Messrs. Bronts, and his wife is also seated close to her unfortunate husband. The Jury consists of twelve of our most respectable and intelligent citizens, who seem to listen to the evidence with the utmost attention, and occasionally interrogate the witnesses on the several points of evidence as they present themselves. The court adjourned at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening until 11 o'clock to day. We think it hardly probable that the case will go to the Jury until to-morrow evening.

EXTRAORDINARY PHENOMENON

AND EXTENSIVE CALAMITY AT TROY, N. Y.

Extract of a letter from a friend to a member of Congress from the State of New York.

TROY, Monday Morning, Jan. 2, 1837.

"The lower part of our city has become a modern Pompeii. Last evening, about seven o'clock, the hill at the lower part of the city slid down, covering up houses, barns, &c. with men, women and children in them. It has covered up every thing half way to the river, passing over Sixth, Fifth and Fourth streets to Third street.

"Never was there greater consternation. The whole city is alive, and on the spot, with thousands from other places, digging out the dead.—They have found eight dead bodies, and nineteen horses. It is impossible to say how many lives are lost. I have just come from the spot, and I saw them dig out two little children, lying in a trundle bed, sleeping the sleep of death, without a bruise upon them, probably smothered.

"Where Fourth street was, the earth is at least sixty feet high. There were not many houses near the spot, but what were were buried. It is calculated that seven buildings, each occupied by two or three families, are destroyed. There was a house upon the hill, which has not been discovered.

"I was sitting in my house, and heard a rumbling noise, like distant thunder, and went to the door and saw a light in the South, and a cloud over the city, and soon gravel fell like hail. Soon the bells commenced ringing, and I went to the spot immediately. The brick-kiln was carried a hundred rods, and was on fire.—It gave light enough to see the horrible and novel scene.

"To add to the dreadful sublime, the water came foaming down the hill in a torrent. It is now evident that the earth about here is volcanic, or that the water comes from the mountains east of us. The swamps that are not filled up with earth are filled with water. It is a melancholy day with us."

MACON, Dec. 22, 1836.

DISGRACEFUL OUTRAGE AND MURDER.

The citizens of Macon were considerably excited last Monday morning, on hearing that the Irishmen at work on the Forsyth rail road, about five or six miles from the city, had beaten some persons who were bringing Cotton to this market. The circumstances, as correctly as we could obtain them, are these: A Mr. Smith who was hauling Cotton to market, while walking behind his wagon, (his negro driving,) was suddenly knocked down and beaten by some of these men; the boy hearing the noise jumped from his horse to see what was the matter when several commenced beating him, he however made his escape without much injury. By this time, a Mr. Huckaby, from Pike, came up and enquired the cause of their beating Smith, when he was instantly knocked down from his horse, and most barbarously beaten, his scull was fractured and he was otherwise badly injured. He died the next day, although every assistance was rendered him. Some one else, whose name we have not learned, was also seriously injured.

Not content with murdering Huckaby, they knocked out the fore teeth of a horse belonging to one of the company, broke him down in the loins and left him in that situation. So soon as the particulars were made known in the city, the Colonel ordered out a number of men, on horseback and on foot, and went in pursuit of the murderers. On the same day they returned with about 15 Irishmen, prisoners. They were kept under guard until Monday night, and on Tuesday, after examination by the civil authority they were all discharged, the witnesses not being able to identify the perpetrators of the crime. There is but little doubt, that some actually concerned in the murder, were among them.

THE CULTIVATOR.

THE THIRD VOLUME

OF the Cultivator will terminate with our next number. We state the fact thus early, that our subscribers, who wish to continue their subscriptions, may have timely opportunity to renew them before the commencement of the fourth volume, which will be on the first of March. We regret the necessity that requires us to demand the subscription monies in advance; but it is necessary to sustain the publication; and we therefore give notice, that the paper will be discontinued to all, after February, who shall not have paid for the 4th volume, or until they do pay for it. The Cultivator is sent to 2250 post offices, from many of which, from the impossibility of making small remittances, there are balances due us, which constitute, in the aggregate, a sum greater than the profits of our labour.

While writing this article, we received our mail letters of the day, of which five from different post offices, are applications for the Cultivator, with promises to remit the subscriptions "the first opportunity," or when the subscriptions amount to a five dollar bill Five a day, and this does not vary much from the average, would make more than 1800 in a year. And yet it would be discourteous for us not to comply, under such fair promises. We only want our patrons to appreciate the aggregate of these items, for which we depend upon the honour and punctuality of strangers, to become satisfied of the necessity of our rule, and to render to it a cheerful compliance.

The circulation of the present volume exceeds that of the preceding one, two or three thousand; from which it may be inferred that our efforts to merit public favour have been generously sustained. Our edition is now 18,000 We trust that, for the sake of the agricultural improvement of our country, we shall not be obliged to reduce the number.

SECOND EDITION OF VOLUME I.

☞ The application for our first volume are so numerous that we have concluded to print a second edition, on the same sized pages as the present volume. Applications for the volume will be registered, and the copies forwarded as soon as the volume can be printed. Price Fifty Cents.

☞ Those intending to continue the CULTIVATOR will please send the subscription money on or before the first week in February next.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.
Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest—or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprize. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention.—It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the whole of his property in the city of Annapolis, to wit:

THE DWELLING HOUSE and Premises where he now resides, which is in complete repair, and calculated for a large family; there are twelve spacious Rooms, eight of which have fire places; the Cellars are perfectly dry, and all newly paved; there are nearly five acres of Ground attached to the premises, with every necessary out building, a large Stable sufficient for twelve Horses, Carriage House, Smoke House, Dairy, and Wash-House, an excellent Pump of pure Water in the yard; the Garden, which is large, abounds in the most choice selection of fruit, and with Shrubbery of every description This property is situated near the Government-House, lately owned and occupied by Gen. Richard Harwood of Thos; the whole is in fee simple, and the title indisputable.

I will also sell the House and Premises, situate on Church street, where I lately resided, and at present occupied by Richard W. Gill, Esq.; this house is in excellent repair, and well calculated for a large genteel family; there are nine Rooms, and seven fire places, every necessary out building attached to the lot; large dry Cellars under the whole house. This property is immediately in the centre of the city, and for health and comfort is not surpassed by any situation in Annapolis. The whole is in fee simple, and title indisputable.

Also, Pirtsburg, containing together with some contiguous Lots, seventeen or eighteen acres, now in an excellent state of cultivation, a large Garden attached, with every variety of Shrubbery and Fruit, the whole recently enclosed with substantial locust and red cedar posts and chesnut rails; there are also upon the premises a snug Barn and Stabling, with other necessary out houses. This property adjoins the College Enclosure, and near the residence of the late Mrs Steele, and is bounded by Severn River; the whole in fee simple and title indisputable.

I will also sell the FARM near Annapolis, lately owned by Charles Carroll, Esq., supposed to contain fourteen hundred and eighty acres of Land, more or less; this estate is susceptible of improvement by clover and plaster, and is well adapted to the growing of Indian Corn, Tobacco, and all kinds of small grain; there are large quantities of Wood and Timber of every description. Oak, Hickory, Walnut, Locust, red Cedar, and an inexhaustable source of Pine for cord wood or timber. There are two BRICK HOUSES upon the premises, one a large Dwelling House; the other contains Machinery for a Mill of Horse power, with all the fixtures complete. There are also every other out house necessary, such as Barn, with Sheds all round for Stabling, Corn House, Smoke House, Quarters for Servants, Dairy, Pigeon House, and an excellent Cellar and Granary, a large Apple Orchard, and a Meadow of forty acres, which at a small expense may be made to yield large crops of Hay for market. This property is also in fee simple, and title indisputable.

I will also sell three fine Horses, calculated for the saddle or draft, together with Carts, Ploughs, Harrows, and other implements of husbandry. I will also sell about forty head of Sheep, and eight Milch Cows; also a neat Family Carriage, calculated for one or two horses. Persons who may be disposed to purchase will of course view the premises, which will be shown by myself, or my sons, and every information given that may be required. Letters post paid will reach me at Annapolis, which shall be attended to. The terms of sale shall be liberal and accommodating. I will divide the Farm into small tenements to suit purchasers. Persons who may be disposed to engage in the wood and timber business, would find it advantageous to purchase this estate—excellent Landings on South River and Severn—The estate runs to both rivers, and should the Canal ever be made, as contemplated, from Washington to Annapolis, it must necessarily pass through this estate to reach the waters of the Severn. I will sell a great bargain in the whole, or any part of the property here advertised, and to capitalists who desire to make investments an excellent opportunity is offered.

THE SALMAGUNDI,

AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN will be furnished to the patrons of this journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. ☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwithal and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on the a for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Haywarden's True Church of Christ shown; Haywarden's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholici, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's history of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr M'Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received, and new translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.

BOOKS BY MAIL.

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty puerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure, &c &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or vile listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

THIS periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

 A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

BY E. L. BULWER,

Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of

The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Marryatt, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godey's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Marryatt, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its selections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a gentleman of high talent about to travel in Europe.—The subscription price is $2 per annum, payable in advance, or three copies for $5.

Saturday News and Bulwer or Marryatt's Novels can be had for $5.

All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to

L. A. GODEY & Co.,
100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading presses of this city:—

SATURDAY NEWS—The weekly paper with the above title, which we foretold a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godey, McMichael & Neal. Such a trio never got together before.—Neal and McMichael beat all for writing, and Godey beats all for publishing; and a capital job they made of their first number, worthy all that was promised. We prophesy for them great success, and for the r readers great satisfaction.—United States Gazette.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS—We have been favoured with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is far above the ordinary standard and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspaper of the British metropolis. Sustained in the same spirit, the News will soon win liberal patronage and enviable reputation. An amusing extract will be found in a subsequent column.—Enquirer and Courier.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in that city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, formerly issued by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A. Godey, J. C. Neal, and M. McMichael, three gentlemen very favorably known as possessing the requisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.—Baltimore Gazette.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godey, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their sheet. The Gentleman's Vade Mecum has been transferred to Messrs. Godey & Co., and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter in addition to that heretofore embodied in the Vade Mecum. We intended to publish their prospectus to-day, but have been prevented by want of room.—Berks and Schuylkill Journal.

SATURDAY NEWS.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, edited by Louis A Godey, conductor of the Lady's Book; Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvanian, and Morton McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should conclude that it will far exceed, for original matter, and new selections, any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is not a reprint of any other Gazette, which is too much the case with the mammoth sheets of that city.—Newcastle Gazette.

The first number of the Philadelphia Saturday News has been received at this office, and promises to be one of the very best weekly papers in the Union. The number before us is very creditable to the enterprising publisher and editors, its contents being various, entertaining and instructive. Those who wish a good family paper from the city cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godey, and edited by Morton McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Esqrs.—Darby Republican.

SATURDAY NEWS.—The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unequivocally on the "go ahead" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godey, whose Lady's Book we have in times past laboured to make our fair readers fairly in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "needful." Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our police head is by Mr. Neal, and is in his inimitable style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of sly and quiet humour.—Saturday Courier.

THE NEW-YORKER—

QUARTO FORM—NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and cotemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF

Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote, and Facetiæ.

EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year TWO volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote, and Facetiæ, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilirating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

☞ The "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for FIVE DOLLARS. ☞ When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. ☞ Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid.)

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts: Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 4 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the world;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more judicious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more real valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to merican Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $300 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description

3d The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

☞ Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, January 19, 1837.

The Annual Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room of said city on Thursday, the 9th of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock. A variety of articles will be exhibited for sale. Industry and skill, taste and fancy are combining their powers to produce a variety which may be pleasing and attractive to the spectators. Many a benevolent heart is devising, and many a kind hand employed in executing something to aid the Fair; and the Managers give this early notice, that others, who perhaps have not yet thought of it, may understand that now is the time to arise for our help. Our hopes are bright, our expectations sanguine, that the result will prove as gratifying as that which has followed similar efforts. Every exertion will be made to have the exhibition as pleasing to the eye as possible; but it is to the heart that we make our appeal, and we trust that those who visit it, will look beyond that which meets the outward vision, to the object for which it is set forth—an object which cannot be known without being appreciated. How full of sorrow is the name of orphan! If rank and wealth and honour surround life's childhood, each and all of them can offer no equivalent for the tender smile, the fond endearment, the watching, ceaseless care of parental love; and when all these are wanting, sad indeed is the situation of the helpless outcast! It is for such we plead, for such we solicit your compassion. Friends and patrons, citizens and strangers, we feel assured that you will give to the relief of the orphan. Yes, you will, for you have not forgotten that it is written, "a Father of the fatherless is God, in his holy habitation," and verily may you believe that inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these, you have done it unto him."

LEAD MINE.

The Cumberland Advocate says:—We understand that a lead mine has been discovered in the vicinity of Cresap-town. Should it turn out that an abundance of this mineral is so near to Cumberland [5 miles] it will be one of the most profitable discoveries ever yet made in the mountains.

SPECIE.—The importation of gold and silver coin and bullion during the year 1836, was $12,166,272, and the exports $4,435,851, leaving a balance in the country of $7,730,557.

DEATH OF BLACK HAWK.

The Galena (Illinois) Advertiser says, that the celebrated warrior Black Hawk, was recently drowned in the Iowa river, by the upsetting of his canoe, when returning from a treaty.

SHIPWRECKS.

During the year 1836, there were lost on the coast of the United States, 56 ships and barques, 98 brigs, 121 schooners, 12 sloops, 30 boats, and 826 lives.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.

The Troy Budget states that one day last week, a number of boys were skating on Fish Creek, in the town of Schuylerville, Saratoga county, N. Y., and the ice gave way, when 15 were precipitated in the water, nine of whom were drowned.

A verdict was yesterday rendered by the Jury in the case of Richard R. White, indicted for burning the Treasury in March, 1833. The Jury affirm that he was guilty of the act, but is saved from its penalty by the limitation of the law as to the time within which the accused was brought to trial. The case, however, is not yet finally disposed of.

In the case of Harry White, indicted for the same offence, the examination of witnesses was yesterday continued to a late hour, and the trial has not yet ended.—Nat. Intel.

OFFICIAL.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, Jan. 12, 1837.

The "General Order" of the 15th November, 1833, making it the duty of Midshipmen, whether passed or not, who had seen sea service, and who were not on special duty or furlough, after their leave of absence had expired, to repair to the Navy Yard near Norfolk, New York or Boston, to attend the Naval School, &c. is hereby rescinded. Midshipmen are not to be admitted hereafter to any of the Naval Schools without the special permission of this Department.

LETTERS OF JUNIUS.

In the winter of 1812, the writer of this article was in Dublin, at the mansion of William C Plunket, where a conversation occurred after dinner, in relation to the author of the letters of Junius. There were present, Mr. Plunket, (since Lord Chancellor;) Rev. Dr. Wm. Magee, (since Archbishop of Dublin;) Mr. Bush, (since Chief Justice,) and a distinguished clergyman of the Church of England, rector of an English parish. Several names were mentioned of supposed writers; when the clergyman was asked for his opinion, which he gave with some reluctance: "I will give you what information is in my possession, but it is my wish that my name be concealed, at least, until the death of Lord Grenville. I have no doubt that Sir Philip Francis was the writer of those letters; the penmanship, style and matter are peculiarly his own. There can be no mistake. I have read letters of his to Sir Edmund Burke and other intimate friends, all bearing the same expressive stamp and features. When Sir Philip went to India, the original papers were left with Lord Grenville, and placed under his seal, not to be opened during their lives. The book bound by the direction of Junius, I have seen in the library of a gentleman, who received it from Sir Philip Francis. I have, therefore, no hesitancy in saying that Sir Philip Francis was the writer of the Letters of Junius."

I deem it worthy of notice, that there is a remarkable similarity in the hand-writing of Sir Philip Francis and Tench Francis, formerly attorney General of Pennsylvania.

ANOTHER LIVERPOOL SHIP LOST ON HAMPSTEAD BEACH.

By slips from our attentive correspondents at New York, we learn that the ship Birmingham, Captain Pattison, went ashore on Hampstead Beach on Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock. The Birmingham was loaded with wheat, dry goods, iron, coal, &c. and had sixty passengers on board. The passengers had all been landed—the ship had bilged. A steamboat had been despatched to her to render assistance.

Further particulars of the ship Birmingham.

Since the above was put in type we have received the Courier and Enquirer of Thursday morning—eighteen hours in advance of the Express mail! From it we have the following particulars:

The Birmingham sailed from Liverpool on the 11th November, with a full cargo. During a tempestuous voyage, she lost two men overboard, had her bulwarks stove, and a whale boat washed from the top of her cabin house. She was spoken on the 27th ultimo by the packet ship Sully, arrived at New York on the 3d inst. and supplied with provisions. About two hours before she struck, she made the Highland Lights, and after running in close to the bar for a pilot and getting none, she stood off shore for a time, and then hauled her wind to the northward. At half-past three o'clock on Wednesday morning, she struck while in the act of going in stays; a cast of the lead, the second mate asserts, was taken a few moments before, and 8 fathoms water found. The ship had her three whole topsails and courses on her at the moment, but the wind being very moderate, the shock was but slight. At daylight her situation being discovered, two sloops went to her assistance, and took from her the passengers; the sailors too, left the vessel, and also took passage in one of the sloops. All were safely landed on Rockaway beach.

On Wednesday at 2 P M. she was laying with her head off shore, all sail set, and a considerable of a list a port; had twenty two inches of water in her at the time, but was informed that she made no more water than she did at sea. The wreck master was on board with 20 or 30 men, ready to assist, but was not allowed to touch any thing on board. The Courier and Enquirer's News Boat brought up her letters and manifest. If lighters were sent immediately down to the ship, she was no doubt got off on Thursday at high water, without any material damage. The Birmingham was formerly one of the Liverpool packets, red star line. She is 600 tons, and owned by Silas Wood, George S. Trimble, and Capt. Isaac Harris, of New York. She has had a continued succession of westerly gales on the passage.

WRECK OF THE SCHOONER CRAZIL.

The Courier and Enquirer says "the hull of this vessel, on Wednesday, lying sunk on the Middle Bank, was raised by means of two lighters placed on each side of her, with cables run under her bottom, and afterwards towed up by the steamboat Sun."

MUTINY AND MURDER.

From our attentive correspondent of the Boston Courier we received a slip by the Express mail on Saturday, giving the particulars of a mutiny and murder on board of the schooner William Wirt, Capt. Smith, of Boston. The intelligence was brought to Boston by the ship Braganza, which sailed from Pernambuco on the 29th of November. On the 27th November the William Wirt arrived at Pernambuco, in charge of an English brig.

The William Wirt was bound to Rio Janeiro Within a few days' sail of that place, the crew struck off from duty, and after a severe contest with the officers, in which the Captain was mortally wounded, they got possession of the vessel. The mate was murdered, and thrown overboard, and a Spanish sailor, who refused to join the murderers, was stabbed and thrown over in his expiring agonies. None of the mutineers knew enough of navigation to manage the vessel, and they rolled about several days, when they fell in with the English brig, which boarded her. A sharp fight ensued, and before the mutineers would yield the possession of the schooner, it was found necessary to shoot one of them down from the fore yard. One of the mates of the brig was then put on board her.

The captain was alive when the brig took the schooner, and had arrived at Pernambuco, but was expected every moment to die. The mutineers were in charge of the American Consul at Pernambuco: The name of the mate of the schooner was John Ward, of Boston.

SWELLED THROAT OF HOGS.

A disease commonly called by this name, attacked my hogs a few weeks since, and carried off three fat hogs before my attention was called to it. On examining all my hogs, I found about 20 had the disease. Being then an entire stranger to the disease, I made inquiry among my neighbours, but found they knew but little of it, except that it was fatal to nearly all that took it. Shortly after, I took a fat hog which had died of the disease, and skinned the throat, then cut out all of the swelled part in one large piece, and then cut it up into small pieces, at each cut finding the pores filled with a slightly coloured water, until I cut to a gland, which was filled with a substance which looked like cheese, or white corn meal dough, and about as large as a hulled walnut. I then concluded that, if the throat of the hog was opened to the diseased gland as soon as it was found to have the disease, it might then be saved: and I have since fully proved the fact, by opening about 20 and putting into the incision a mixture of corrosive sublimate and red precipitate. In performing the operation, I lay the hog down, feel for the lump, then cut in lengthwise carefully until I split the diseased lump, which will be known by its discharging dark blood. I then put in the above mixture, and the hog will be well in a few days. In several cases the hogs were so far gone and their throats swelled so much, that I could not precisely find the lump; I then cut a gash about three inches lengthwise on each side of the throat, as deep as I thought safe, and put in the mixture. As all have got well or are on the mend, I am induced to believe, that if farmers would open the throats of their hogs as soon as they commence swelling, they might be cured in every instance. I would describe the symptoms, but the disease is so common that I think it unnecessary, only to state that the swelling may be discovered by close examination about a week before the hog stops eating, then if not relieved the hog lasts but few days longer.

JOEL SCOTT.

Franklin county, Ky., Dec. 15.

We lay before our readers extracts from two letters, dated 23d December, recently received at the War Department from Major General JESUP: [Globe.

FORT BROOKE, Dec. 23, 1836.

SIR:—After writing to you on the 18th instant, I ascertained from my Indian scouts and spies, whom I had kept constantly employed in scouring the country that not a sign of hostile Indians could be discovered at or near any of their strongholds on the Withlacoochie. All the trails are in a southeasterly direction, and Powell, if he has not been deserted by his followers, has probably determined to draw the war into the neighborhood of Micanopy, Jumper, and Philip, to compel them to adhere to him with their warriors.

As the enemy could not be found where we expected him, and the term of service of the Tennessee Volunteers having expired, I determined to avail myself of the movement of that corps to send the wagon train to Tampa Bay, for supplies for the depots which I had found necessary to establish.

I left Brigadier General Armistead in command of the forces on the Withlacoochie, with orders to scour the country from Fort King to that river, and to take the most active measures to find the enemy; and I came through with a small escort to Fort Foster, for the purpose of designating the point to be occupied as depots, in addition to those already established.

I have ordered Lieutenant Colonel Foster to erect a work on the Withlacoochie at the place where the Fort King road crosses it. It will be completed in a few days, and a wagon train will leave here to-morrow to supply it with subsistence, forage, tools, &c.

Learning by express from Colonel Henderson of the arrival of Commodore Dallas, I came hither to arrange with him a plan of combined operations for the campaign. He is several miles below, but I expect him here to-day.

I have established an abundant depot at Fort Foster, twenty five miles in advance of this place; the fort which Lt. Col. Foster, is erecting on the Withlacoochie, is twenty nine miles in advance of Fort Foster. Fort Armstrong is fifteen miles further north, near the point where the road from Volusia unites with the road to Fort King; the two last posts command the principal retreats of the enemy on the Withlacoochie. These posts, with that near the mouth of the Withlacoochie, and that at Volusia, will be sufficient for the present.

* * * * *

I have the honour to be sir,
Your obedient serv't.
(Signed) T. S. JESUP.

HEAD QUARTERS, ARMY OF THE SOUTH,
Fort Brooke, Tampa Bay,
December 28, 1836.

SIR:—Since I wrote to you this morning, Com. Dallas has arrived, and has offered to furnish men from the ships of war under his command, to defend my depot, and to perform any other service at the posts, or in water expeditions, which the public interests may render necessary.

The Commodore has acted on this occasion with the same disinterested and magnanimous zeal which distinguished his conduct during the Creek campaign.

His co-operation, which I most readily accept, will relieve me from many embarrassments, and will enable me to take the field several days sooner than I had hoped. He will send an officer, with a party of sailors, to ascertain the practicability of navigating the Withlacoochie, and will furnish the force to garrison Fort Clinch, on that river.

* * * * *

You shall not be disappointed in my efforts, though you may be in their results. The country is so extensive, and contains so many hiding places for large as well as small parties, that the enemy may escape from me.

Major Nelson, with a battalion of four companies of mounted volunteers from Georgia, arrived, and reported this evening. He came through direct from Fort Clinch to this place. Two companies of his battallion were retained by Brig'r. Gen. Wool in the Cherokee country. The four companies here amount to about two hundred men; these with the Alabama volunteers, will make my mounted force near five hundred men.

I am greatly embarrassed by the difficulty of obtaining labourers and drivers. If the war should not be brought to a close in a few weeks, I shall send to Cuba for mule-drivers, and to New Jersey for artificers and labourers.

I have the honour to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
TH. S. JESUP.

The Hon. B. F. BUTLER,
Secretary of War, Washington City.

TEXAS.

The New Orleans Standard furnishes a very curious account of the action of the different branches of the Texian government, in relation to SANTA ANNA. The rumor reaching the ears of the members of Congress, that President Houston intended to liberate the Mexican chiefs, they passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President be and is hereby vested with the custody and disposal of all prisoners of war. Provided, that the prisoners Santa Anna and Almonte shall not be released or set at liberty on any occasion, without the concurrence of the Senate, and that the President shall not have the power to release said prisoners during the recess of the Senate.

This resolution was immediately vetoed by Gen. Houston. The Congress, not withstanding, passed it again by the Constitutional majority of two thirds, and it became a law. President Houston, driven to extremity, and determined to release SANTA ANNA at all hazards, pronounced the resolution unconstitutional and a usurpation of his executive authority, and in the face of the law of Congress set Santa Anna free, and put the whole Congress at defiance. The army being with the President in all things, Congress succumbed. The repetition of such scenes must prove highly disadvantageous to the Texian cause.

THE CULTIVATOR.

THE THIRD VOLUME

OF the Cultivator will terminate with our next number. We state the fact thus early, that our subscribers, who wish to continue their subscriptions, may have timely opportunity to renew them before the commencement of the fourth volume, which will be on the first of March. We regret the necessity that requires us to demand the subscription monies in advance; but it is necessary to sustain the publication; and we therefore give notice, that the paper will be discontinued to all, after February, who shall not have paid for the 4th volume, or until they do pay for it. The Cultivator is sent to 2250 post offices, from many of which, from the impossibility of making small remittances, there are balances due us, which constitute, in the aggregate, a sum greater than the profits of our labour.

While writing this article, we received our mail letters of the day, of which five from different post offices, are applications for the Cultivator, with promises to remit the subscriptions "the first opportunity," or when the subscriptions amount to a five dollar bill. Five a day, and this does not vary much from the average, would make more than 1800 in a year. And yet it would be discourteous for us not to comply, under such fair promises. We only want our patrons to appreciate the aggregate of these items, for which we depend upon the honour and punctuality of strangers, to become satisfied of the necessity of our rule, and to render to it a cheerful compliance.

The circulation of the present volume exceeds that of the preceding one, two or three thousand; from which it may be inferred that our efforts to merit public favour have been generously sustained. Our edition is now 18,000. We trust that, for the sake of the agricultural improvement of our country, we shall not be obliged to reduce the number.

SECOND EDITION OF VOLUME I.

☞ The applications for our first volume are so numerous that we have concluded to print a second edition, on the same size pages as the present volume. Applications for the volume will be registered, and the copies forwarded as soon as the volume can be printed. Price Fifty Cents.

☞ Those intending to continue the Cultivator will please send the subscription money on or before the first week in February next.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.
Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has it volved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest —or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprize. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention.—It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprize and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

CHANCERY SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the subscriber will expose to Public Sale, on Tuesday the 24th day of January next, on the premises, the House and Lot of Ground whereof the late Samuel Maynard died seized, situated in the city of Annapolis, adjoining the residence of Mrs. Wilmot, and now occupied by John N. Watkins, Esq. The House is built of the very best materials, and is in good repair, and being near the State House makes it valuable. It is deemed unnecessary to give a further description of the above property, as it is presumed those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One third cash on the day of sale, and the residue of the purchase money to be paid within one year from the day of sale, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond, with good security to be approved by the Trustee. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the whole of his property in the city of Annapolis, to wit:

THE DWELLING HOUSE and Premises where he now resides, which is in complete repair, and calculated for a large family; there are twelve spacious Rooms, eight of which have fire places; the Cellars are perfectly dry, and all newly paved; there are nearly five acres of Ground attached to the premises, with every necessary out building, a large Stable sufficient for twelve Horses, Carriage House, Smoke House, Dairy, and Wash-House, an excellent Pump of pure Water in the yard; the Garden, which is large, abounds in the most choice selection of Fruit, and with Shrubbery of every description. This property is situated near the Government-House, lately owned and occupied by Gen. Richard Harwood of Thos.; the whole is in fee simple, and the title indisputable.

I will also sell the House and Premises, situate on Church street, where I lately resided, and at present occupied by Richard W. Gill, Esq.; this house is in excellent repair, and well calculated for a large genteel family; there are nine Rooms, and seven fire places, every necessary out building attached to the lot; large dry Cellars under the whole house. This property is immediately in the centre of the city, and for health and comfort is not surpassed by any situation in Annapolis. The whole is in fee simple, and title indisputable.

Also, Plattsburg, containing together with some contiguous Lots, seventeen or eighteen acres, now in an excellent state of cultivation, a large Garden attached, with every variety of Shrubbery and Fruit, the whole recently enclosed with substantial locust and red cedar posts and chesnut rails; there are also upon the premises a snug Barn and Stabling, with other necessary out houses. This property adjoins the College Enclosure, and near the residence of the late Mrs Steele, and is bounded by Severn River; the whole in fee simple and title indisputable.

I will also sell the FARM near Annapolis, lately owned by Charles Carroll, Esq., supposed to contain fourteen hundred and eighty acres of Land, more or less; this estate is susceptible of improvement by clover and plaster, and is well adapted to the growing of Indian Corn, Tobacco, and all kinds of small grain; there are large quantities of Wood and Timber of every description. Oak, Hickory, Walnut, Locust, red Cedar, and an inexhaustable source of Pine for cord wood or timber. There are two BRICK HOUSES upon the premises, one a large Dwelling House; the other contains Machinery for a Mill of Horse power, with all the fixtures complete. There are also every other out house necessary, such as Barn, with Sheds all round for Stabling, Corn House, Smoke House, Quarters for Servants, Dairy, Pigeon House, and an excellent Cellar and Granary, a large Apple Orchard, and a Meadow of forty acres, which at a small expense may be made to yield large crops of Hay for market. This property is also in fee simple, and title indisputable.

I will also sell three fine Horses, calculated for the saddle or draft, together with Carts, Ploughs, Harrows, and other implements of husbandry. I will also sell about forty head of Sheep, and eight Milch Cows; also a neat Family Carriage, calculated for one or two horses. Persons who may be disposed to purchase will of course view the premises, which will be shown by myself, or my sons, and every information given that may be required. Letters post paid will reach me at Annapolis, which shall be attended to. The terms of sale shall be liberal and accommodating. I will divide the Farm into small tenements to suit purchasers. Persons who may be disposed to engage in the wood and timber business, would find it advantageous to purchase this estate——excellent Landings on South River and Severn—The estate runs to both rivers, and should the Canal ever be made, as contemplated, from Washington to Annapolis, it must necessarily pass through this estate to reach the waters of the Severn. I will sell a great bargain in the whole, or any part of the property here advertised, and to capitalists who desire to make investments an excellent opportunity is offered.

HAS just received direct from London Dress Coat, Pantaloons and Vest, as specimens of the Fashions, and invites his friends and those disposed to patronize him, to call and examine them, together with a large and general assortment of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, and VESTING, all of the latest importations.

IN CHANCERY,

30th December 1836.

Walter B. C. Worthington
vs.
Fielder Bowie, Thomas Lyles, William Smith, and Margaret his Wife, and others.

THE bill filed in this case in substance states, that Fielder Bowie, one of the defendants, sometime in the year 1817 purchased of a certain David Carcaud, now deceased, two tracts or parcels of land lying in Prince George's county, in the state of Maryland, called "Leith" and "Discovery," containing the first two hundred acres, and the last eight acres and one half of an acre, for the sum of $3,375—that the whole of the said purchase money has been paid, but that no deed of said lands was ever made by said Carcaud to said Bowie—that complainant has since become the purchaser of both of said parcels of land at a sale made by the Sheriff of Prince George's county, of the property of said Bowie, and has fully paid the purchase money thereof.

The bill further states, that the said David Carcaud died leaving two children, William M. Carcaud and Sarah Carcaud, his heirs at law, and legal representatives—That William M. Carcaud, the son of David Carcaud, has also departed this life, leaving an only son, David Carcaud, Junior, who is also dead, leaving the following children, all of whom are minors, his heirs at law, to wit: David Carcaud, Thomas Carcaud, Gilbert Carcaud, William Carcaud, and Mary Letitia Carcaud, now residing in Calvert county—That Sarah Carcaud, the daughter of David Carcaud, intermarried with a certain Thomas H. Lyles, and that she and her said husband have also departed this life, leaving the following children their heirs at law, to wit: David C. Lyles, Henry Lyles, William C. Lyles, Thomas Lyles, and Margaret Lyles—That David C. Lyles is also dead, leaving the following minor children, his heirs at law, George D. Lyles, Dennis Lyles, and Maria Lyles, residing in Anne Arundel county—That Henry Lyles is living in Calvert county, and William C. Lyles in Anne-Arundel county—That Thomas Lyles is now residing in the state of Ohio, and that Margaret Lyles, having intermarried with one William Smith, is now with her said husband residing in the state of Mississippi.

The object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of the aforesaid lands to the complainant.

It is thereupon ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the first day of February next, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, that they may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the tenth day of May next, to answer the premises, and shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

THE SALMAGUNDI,

AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

The Salmagundi will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of The Salmagundi will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. ☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

☞ The Salmagundi will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise is would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By this means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 1st.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Haywarden's True Church of Christ shown; Haywarden's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholici, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M'Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for the year.

Fourth Year of Waldie's [illegible]

BOOKS BY SUBSCRIPTION.

PROSPECTUS OF TWO [illegible] VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable [illegible], the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transmission by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty puerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

 A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,

Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $6 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $12 00.

BY E. L. BULWER,

Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of

The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Marryatt, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godey's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Marryatt, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its selections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a gentleman of high talent about to travel in Europe.—The subscription price is $2 per annum, payable in advance, or three copies for $5.

Saturday News and Bulwer or Marryatt's Novels can be had for $5.

All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to

L. A. GODEY & Co.,
100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading papers of this city:—

SATURDAY NEWS.—The weekly paper with the above title, which we foretold a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godey, McMichael & Neal. Such a trio never got together before.—Neal and McMichael beat all the writing, and Godey beats all for publishing; and a capital job they made of their first number, worthy all that was promised. We prophesy for them great success, and for their readers great satisfaction.—United States Gazette.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS.—We have been favored with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is far above the ordinary standard and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspaper of the British metropolis. Sustained in the same spirit, the News will soon win liberal patronage and enviable reputation. An amusing extract will be found in a subsequent column.—Enquirer and Courier.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in that city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, formerly issued by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A. Godey, J. C. Neal, and M. McMichael, three gentlemen very favorably known as possessing the requisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.—Baltimore Gazette.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godey, Neal and Mcallichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their sheet. The Gentleman's Vade Mecum has been transferred to Messrs Godey & Co., and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter in addition to that heretofore embodied in the Vade Mecum. We intended to publish their prospectus today, but have been prevented by want of room.—Berks and Schuylkill Journal.

SATURDAY NEWS.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, by Louis A Godey, conductor of the Lady's Book, J. C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvanian, and M. McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should [illegible] it will far exceed, for original matter, and [illegible] any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is [illegible] of any other Gazette, which is too [illegible] the mammoth sheets of that city.—N. [illegible]

The first number of the Philadelphia [illegible] has been received at this office, and [illegible] of the very best weekly papers in the [illegible] number before us is very creditable to the [illegible] publisher and editors, its contents being [illegible] taining and instructive. Those who wish a [illegible] ly paper from the city, cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godey, and edited by Morton McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Esqrs.—Darby Republican.

SATURDAY NEWS.—The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unequivocally on the "go ahead" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godey, whose Lady's Book we have in times past laboured to make our fair readers fairly in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "needful." Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our police head is by Mr. Neal, and is in his inimitable style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of wit and quiet humour.—Saturday Courier.

THE NEW-YORKER—

QUARTO FORM—NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and cotemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF

Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote, and Facetiæ.

EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year TWO VOLUMES of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote, and Facetiæ, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilirating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

☞ The "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stiched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for FIVE dollars. ☞ When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. ☞ Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (post paid.)

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go" No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

☞ Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

Mr. Eccleston submitted the following order,

Ordered, That the committee on grievances and courts of justice, be instructed to enquire whether the laws of the State do not require the county Clerks and Registers of Wills, of the several counties of this State, to prove their several accounts against the county presented to the Levy courts or commissioners, as the case may be. And if the committee discover that such is not now the law of this State, they are hereby instructed forthwith, to report a bill making it the duty of all such officers to present their accounts drawn out in a fair and legible hand, and to prove the same, in the presence of said levy courts or commissioners as the case may be.

Which was twice read and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Primrose,

Ordered, That the committee on grievances and courts of justice enquire into the expediency of reporting a bill making it the duty of Sheriffs and constables to make presentments to the respective justices courts, at their monthly meetings, of all and every breach of the peace recognizable by said courts, which may in future come to their notice through information given to them by others, or which may come under their immediate notice.

Mr. Ghiselin, submitted the following preamble and resolutions,

Whereas, it is important to the interest and prosperity of a large portion of the people of the United States, and particularly to the people of the States of Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, and Missouri, that in the future adjustment by Congress of the tariff system, a just and equal regard should be had to the article of tobacco, an agricultural protection of the Legislatures of their respective States to this subject.

Resolved, That the Senators and Representatives of this State, in the Congress of the United States, be requested to take under their especial care this highly important and much neglected interest, and that they be particularly requested to oppose all and every adjustment of the present tariff, without obtaining for the tobacco interest a fair and equal participation in the benefits to be derived from such adjustment.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to transmit a copy of the aforegoing preamble and resolutions to the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State.

Which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

The house then resumed the consideration of the motion submitted by Mr. Townsend, of Worcester, to reconsider their vote upon the bill, entitled, an act, supplemental to an act, entitled, an act for the relief of the heirs of Jane White, late of the city of Baltimore,

On the question being put, will the house reconsider their vote, it was resolved in the affirmative.

After adopting several amendments to the bill, the question was then put, shall the said bill pass, as amended? Resolved in the affirmative—yeas 29, nays 32.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill to confirm an act, for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for erecting a new one by the name of "Carroll," and to alter and change the constitution of this State, so far as may be necessary to effect the same, endorsed "will pass," ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the further supplement to an act to incorporate the Mechanis Fire Insurance Company of Baltimore, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendment;"

Which amendment was read assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed;

And delivered the following bills, originated in and passed by the Senate, viz—

A bill to confirm an act to repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relates to the division of Cecil county into four separate election districts;

And, a bill for the relief of the heirs of Samuel Polk, of Somerset county;

The house then adjourned.

Friday, January 20.

For the relief of Martha Riley.

The bill reported by Mr. Ford, to amend the constitution of the state was made the order of the day for Monday the 6th of February.

Mr. Eccleston, submitted the following message:

Gentlemen of the Senate,

Believing that a better and more acceptable reform of the constitution might be suggested by the united action of a joint committee, than has been submitted from the Senate, and action of a committee of this House, and similar committee of the Senate. We therefore propose to your honourable body, to appoint a joint committee of seven members, of this House and three of the Senate, to whom shall be committed the several reports and bills on the subject of reform, now before the Legislature. We have appointed on the part of this house, Messrs. , to join such gentlemen as may be appointed by your honourable body, who, by an interchange of sentiments and opinions on this momentous subject, may be able to advise such changes in our State constitution as shall meet the views of a large majority of the General Assembly.

Which was twice read,—and

STATE OF MARYLAND, SC.

Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court,

January 17th, 1837.

ON application by petition of Henrietta H. Norwood, Administratrix of Thomas Norwood, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that she give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.

SAM'L. BROWN, Jun'r.,
Reg. Wills A. A. County.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Thomas Norwood, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 17th day of July next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 17th day of January 1837.

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, January 26, 1837.

The Annual Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room of said city on Thursday, the 9th of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock. A variety of articles will be exhibited for sale. Industry and skill, taste and fancy are combining their powers to produce a variety which may be pleasing and attractive to the spectators. Many a benevolent heart is devising, and many a kind hand employed in executing something to aid the Fair; and the Managers give this early notice, that others, who perhaps have not yet thought of it, may understand that now is the time to arise for our help. Our hopes are bright, our expectations sanguine, that the result will prove as gratifying as that which has followed similar efforts. Every exertion will be made to have the exhibition as pleasing to the eye as possible; but it is to the heart that we make our appeal, and we trust that those who visit it, will look beyond that which meets the outward vision, to the object for which it is set forth—an object which cannot be known without being appreciated. How full of sorrow is the name of orphan! If rank and wealth and honour surround life's childhood, each and all of them can offer no equivalent for the tender smile, the fond endearment, the watching, ceaseless care of parental love; and when all these are wanting, sad indeed is the situation of the helpless outcast! It is for such we plead, for such we solicit your compassion. Friends and patrons, citizens and strangers, we feel assured that you will give to the relief of the orphan. Yes, you will, for you have not forgotten that it is written, "a Father of the fatherless is God, in his holy habitation," and verily may you believe that "inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these, you have done it unto him."

THE SIAMESE TWIN BROTHERS

Will be happy to receive Visiters on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, at Mrs. Williams's residence, near the City Hotel. ☞ See advertisement.

Communication.

Mr. Green:—The utility of a rail road between Baltimore and Annapolis, is strikingly illustrated by the occurrences of the present winter. The action of the Legislature on this subject, is indicated by the following proceedings during the sessions of 1831 and 1832

Tuesday, December 27th, 1831. Mr. Hunt presented the memorial of James F. Brice, and others, of the city of Annapolis, praying for an act to incorporate a company for the purpose of constructing a rail road from the city of Annapolis to Baltimore; which was read and referred to the committee on Internal Improvement.

Friday, January 20th, 1832.

Mr. Johnson, chairman of the committee on Internal Improvements, reported a bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the Baltimore and Annapolis rail road company; which was read.

Monday, February 6th, 1832.

The bill reported by Mr. Johnson, chairman of the committee on Internal Improvements, entitled, An act to incorporate the Baltimore and Annapolis rail road company, was taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed—Yeas 44, nays 15.

The above vote, clearly and pointedly, nay, satisfactorily evinces the disposition towards this measure of the popular branch of the General Assembly of Maryland, who at their subsequent session, in addition to this, beneficently incorporated in the charter of the Baltimore and Washington rail road company, the subjoined section:

On motion by Mr. Blakistone, said bill was further amended by adding the following as an additional section:

Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful at any time for the state to construct, or to charter a company to construct a rail road from the city of Annapolis, or from any other part of the state, to intersect the road herein intended to be constructed, at such point on said road as the legislature may see fit, and that the state or such company when chartered, shall have power and authority to establish a depot at the intersection of said roads.

On the passage of the bill, including the aforegoing section, being the fourteenth section of the Baltimore and Washington rail road charter, on motion of Mr. Merrick, the yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follows—Yeas 52, nays 15. [This bill passed the Senate without a division, so that the fourteenth section received the unanimous sanction of that body.]

VIATOR.

N. B. The fourteenth section is comprised in a further supplement to the Baltimore and Washington rail road law passed at the previous session of 1830.

In the House of Delegates, Mr. Ford delivered the following Report on the Constitution.

The Committee appointed to consider and report such amendments as are necessary to be made in the Constitution and Form of Government of this State, have had the subject under consideration, and beg leave to report:

That a large majority of the committee are of opinion that certain amendments to the Constitution should be made in regard to the basis of representation in the House of Delegates, and the basis of representation and the mode of electing the Senate, and the manner of electing the Governor, and of appointing to Civil Offices of Executive appointment. These amendments, with various other amendments of an incidental character, are embodied in a Bill, entitled, "An Act to amend the Constitution and Form of Government of the State of Maryland," which they beg leave to submit to the consideration of the House.

The Bill is the fruit of a spirit of compromise, which must always be invoked when important changes are proposed to be made in the organic law of a Republic.

Considered in the abstract, and without reference to the existing circumstances of this State, it might be difficult to sustain every distinct feature of the Bill upon strict principle. It is believed however, that the concessions made by the smaller and least populous counties of the State will be accepted as substantial evidences of their disposition to gratify the reasonable demands of those sections which are at present excited on the subject of reform.

It will be observed that the bill reported by the committee, provides for future additions to the representation of the larger counties in the House of Delegates. As the power of reapportioning the representation is thus given to the Legislature to be exercised by a single act, it is by no means to be treated as illusive; to the contrary it affords to every portion of the State a guarantee that any irregularities which may be supposed to exist in the present apportionment of representation, will be remedied within a term not far distant. A gradual change in the constitution of our General Assembly is desirable.

Your committee believe that further improvements may be made in the Constitution—some propositions they have this moment under consideration, and design, with permission of the House, to sit from time to time, and report such amendments as they may hereafter mature.

It has been supposed by your committee that the public business might be dispatched by making partial reports, as the future action of the committee might be controled by the decision of the House on the bill now submitted. All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM FORD, Chairman.

By Order, BEN. SEEGAR, Clk.

TROUBLE AMONG THE N. W. INDIANS.

The Galena Gazette of the 14th Dec. states that considerable excitement prevails among the Sacs and Fox Indians, growing out of the murders of several of their tribe, by a party of Sioux.

Several lodges of the Sacs and Foxes, numbering something like fifty souls, on or near the head waters of the Iowa River, were set upon by a party of Sioux, and all, with the exception of ten, massacred. These ten, escaped and carried the intelligence to the rest of the tribe, whereupon runners were despatched to Gen. Street, at Rock Island, soliciting his aid and protection in their behalf. The Indians were much excited and were banding together with the intention of defending themselves from similar attacks. They likewise talk loudly of making war upon their enemies, the Sioux, as soon as the "grass grows" in the Spring.

IN SENATE, JANUARY 19, 1837.

TEXAS.

The following message was received from the President of the United States, through ANDREW JACKSON, Jr. his private Secretary:

To the Senate of the United States:

In compliance with the resolution of the Senate dated the 16th instant, I transmit a copy and a translation of a letter addressed to me on the 4th of July last, by the President of the Mexican Republic, and a copy of my reply to the same on the 4th of September. No other communication upon the subject of the resolution referred to, has been made to the Executive by any other foreign Government, or by any person claiming to act in behalf of Mexico.

ANDREW JACKSON.

WASHINGTON, JANUARY 18, 1837.

[TRANSLANION.]

The President of the Mexican Republic to the President of the United States.

To his Excellency General ANDREW JACKSON, President of the United States of America.

COLUMBIA, (IN TEXAS) JULY 4, 1836.

MUCH ESTEEMED SIR: In fulfilment of the duties which patriotism and honour impose upon a public man, I came to this country at the head of six thousand Mexicans. The chances of war, made inevitable by circumstances, reduced me to the condition of a prisoner, in which I still remain, as you may have already learned. The disposition evinced by General Samuel Houston, the Commander-in-Chief of the Texan army, and by his successor, General Thomas J. Rusk, for the termination of the war—the decision of the President and Cabinet of Texas in favour of a proper compromise between the contending parties, and my own conviction, produced the conventions of which I send you copies enclosed, and the orders given by me to General Filisola, my second in command, to retire from the river Brasos, where he was posted, to the other side of the river Bravo del Norte.

As there was no doubt that General Filisola would religiously comply, as far as concerned himself, the President and Cabinet agreed that I should set off for Mexico, in order to fulfil the other engagements; and, with that intent, I embarked on board the schooner Invincible, which was to carry me to the port of Vera Cruz.—Unfortunately, however, some indiscreet persons raised a mob, which obliged the authorities to have me landed by force, and brought back into strict captivity. This incident has prevented me from going to Mexico, where I should otherwise have arrived early in last month; and, in consequence of it, the Government of that country, doubtless ignorant of what has occurred, has withdrawn the command of the army from General Filisola, and has ordered his successor, General Urrea, to continue its operations. In obedience to which order that General is, according to the latest accounts, already at the river Nueces. In vain [illegible] worthy men endeavoured to [illegible] necessity of moderation, and of [illegible] to Mexico, according to the convention; but the excitement of the public mind [illegible] with the return of the Mexican army to Texas. Such is the state of things here at present. The continuation of the war, and of its disasters, is therefore inevitable, unless the voice of reason be heard, in proper time, from the mouth of some powerful individual. It appears to me that you, sir have it in your power to perform this good office, by interfering in favour of the executions of the said convention, which shall be strictly fulfilled on my part. When I offered to treat with this Government, I was convinced that it was useless for the Mexico to continue the war. I have acquired exact information respecting this country, which I did not possess four months ago. I have so much zeal for the interests of my country to wish for any thing which is not compatible with them. Being always ready to sacrifice myself for its glory and advantage, I never would have hesitated to subject myself to torments or death, rather than consent to any compromise if Mexico could thereby have obtained the slightest benefit. I am firmly convinced that it is proper to terminate this question by political negotiation; that conviction alone determined me sincerely to agree to what has been stipulated; and in the same spirit I make to you this frank declaration. Be pleased, sir, to favour me by a like confidence on your part; afford me the satisfaction of avoiding approaching evils, and of contributing to that good which my heart advises. Let us enter into negotiations by which the friendship between your nation and the Mexican may be strengthened, both being amicably engaged in giving being and stability to a People who are desirous of appearing in the political world; and who under the protection of the two nations, will attain its object within a few years.

The Mexicans are magnanimous when treated with consideration. I will clearly set before them the proper and humane reasons which require noble and frank conduct on their part, and I doubt not that they will act thus as soon as they have been convinced.

By what I have here submitted, you will see the sentiments which animate me, and with which I remain your most humble and obedient servant.

ANTONIO LOPEZ DE SANTA ANNA.

The President of the United States to the President of the Mexican Republic.

HERMITAGE, September 4, 1836.

To Gen. ANTONIO LOPEZ DE SANTA ANNA:

SIR: I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th of July last, which has been forwarded to me by General Samuel Houston, under cover of one from him, transmitted by an express from General Gaines, who is in command of the United States forces on the Texian frontier. The great object of these communications appear to be to put an end to the disasters which necessarily attend the civil war now raging in Texas, and asking the interposition of the United States in furthering so humane and desirable a purpose.—That any well-intended effort of yours in aid of this object should have been defeated, is calculated to excite the regret of all who justly appreciate the blessings of peace, and who take an interest in the causes which contribute to the prosperity of Mexico in her domestic as well as her foreign relations.

The Government of the United States is ever anxious to cultivate peace and friendship with all nations. But it proceeds on the principle that all nations have the right to alter, amend, or change their own government, as the sovereign power, the people, may direct. In this respect, it never interferes with the policy of other powers, nor can it permit any on the part of others with its internal policy. Consistent with this principle, whatever we can do to restore peace between contending nations, or remove the causes of misunderstanding, is cheerfully at the service of those who are willing to rely upon our good offices as a friend or mediator.

In reference, however, to the agreement which you, as the representative of Mexico, have made with Texas, and which invites the interposition of the United States, you will at once see that we are forbidden, by the character of the communications made to us through the Mexican Minister, from considering it. That Government has notified us that, as long as you are a prisoner, no act of yours will be regarded as binding by the Mexican authorities. Under these circumstances, it will be manifest to you that good faith to Mexico, as well as the general principle to which I have adverted, as forming the basis of our intercourse with all foreign powers, make it impossible for me to take any step like that you have anticipated. If however, Mexico should signify her willingness to avail herself of our good offices in bringing about the desirable result you have described, nothing could give me more pleasure than to devote my best services to it. To be instrumental in terminating the evils of civil war, and in substituting in their stead the blessings of peace, is a divine privilege. Every Government, and the people of all countries, should feel it their highest happiness to enjoy an opportunity of thus manifesting their love of each other, and their interest in the general principles which apply to them all as members of the common family of man.

Your letter, and that of General Houston, Commander-in-Chief of the Texian army, will be made the basis of an early interview with the Mexican Minister, at Washington. They will hasten my return to Washington, to which place I will set out in a few days, expecting to reach it by the 1st of October. In the mean time, I hope Mexico and Texas, feeling that war is the greatest of calamities, will pause before another campaign is undertaken, and can proto the conduct of their enemies of abolition, which have already marked the progress of their contest, and have given so much pain to their Christian friends throughout the world.

This is sent under cover to General Houston, who will give it a safe conveyance to you.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ANDREW JACKSON.

ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, Sct.

ON application to the subscriber Chief Judge of the Orphans Court of Anne-Arundel county, by petition in writing of John W. Sunderland, of Anne-Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at December session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same being annexed to his petition, and the said John W. Sunderland having satisfied the court by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said John W. Sunderland having taken the oath by the said act prescribed for the delivering up his property, and given sufficient security for his appearance at the county court of Anne Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Robert Plummer trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said John W. Sunderland, who has given bond as such, and received from the said John W. Sunderland a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said John W. Sunderland be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne-Arundel county, once a week for three successive months before the third Monday in April next, to appear before the said county court at the court house of said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to shew cause if any they have, why the said John W. Sunderland should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements as prayed. Given under my hand this 26th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

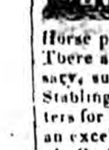
VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.



THE subscriber offers for sale the whole of his property in the city of Annapolis, to wit:

THE DWELLING HOUSE and Premises where he now resides, which is in complete repair, and calculated for a large family; there are twelve spacious Rooms, eight of which have fire places; the Cellars are perfectly dry, and all newly paved; there are nearly five acres of Ground attached to the premises, with every necessary out building, a large Stable sufficient for twelve Horses, Carriage House, Smoke House, Dairy, and Wash-House, an excellent Pump of pure Water in the yard; the Garden, which is large, abounds in the most choice selection of Fruit, and with Shrubbery of every description. This property is situated near the Government-House, lately owned and occupied by Gen. Richard Harwood of Thos.; the whole is in fee simple, and the title indisputable.

I will also sell the House and Premises, situate on Church street, where I lately resided, and at present occupied by Richard W. Gill, Esq.; this house is in excellent repair, and well calculated for a large genteel family; there are nine Rooms, and seven fire places, every necessary out building attached to the lot; large dry Cellars under the whole house. This property is immediately in the centre of the city, and for health and comfort is not surpassed by any situation in Annapolis. The whole is in fee simple, and title indisputable.

Also, Plattsburg, containing together with some contiguous Lots, seventeen or eighteen acres, now in an excellent state of cultivation, a large Garden attached with every variety of Shrubbery and Fruit, the whole recently enclosed with substantial locust and red cedar posts and chesnut rails; there are also upon the premises a snug Barn and Stabling, with other necessary out houses. This property adjoins the College Enclosure, and near the residence of the late Mrs Steele, and is bounded by Severn River; the whole in fee simple and title indisputable.

I will also sell the FARM near Annapolis, lately owned by Charles Carroll, Esq., supposed to contain fourteen hundred and eighty acres of Land, more or less; this estate is susceptible of improvement by clover and plaster, and is well adapted to the growing of Indian Corn, Tobacco, and all kinds of small grain; there are large quantities of Wood and Timber of every description, Oak, Hickory, Walnut, Locust, red Cedar, and an inexhaustable source of Pine for cord wood or timber. There are two BRICK HOUSES upon the premises, one a large Dwelling House; the other contains Machinery for a Mill of Horse power, with all the fixtures complete. There are also every other out house necessary, such as Barn, with Sheds all round for Stabling, Corn House, Smoke House, Quarters for Servants, Dairy, Pigeon House, and an excellent Cellar and Granary, a large Apple Orchard, and a Meadow of forty acres, which at a small expense may be made to yield large crops of Hay for market. This property is also in fee simple, and title indisputable.

I will also sell three fine Horses, calculated for the saddle or draft, together with Carts, Ploughs, Harrows, and other implements of husbandry. I will also sell about forty head of Sheep, and eight Milch Cows; also a neat Family Carriage, calculated for one or two horses. Persons who may be disposed to purchase will of course view the premises, which will be shown by myself, or my sons, and every information given that may be required. Letters post paid will reach me at Annapolis, which shall be attended to. The terms of sale shall be liberal and accommodating. I will divide the Farm into small tenements to suit purchasers. Persons who may be disposed to engage in the wood and timber business, would find it advantageous to purchase this estate—excellent Landings on South River and Severn—The estate runs to both rivers, and should the Canal ever be made, as contemplated, from Washington to Annapolis, it must necessarily pass through this estate to reach the waters of the Severn. I will sell a great bargain, in the whole, or any part of the property here advertised, and to capitalists who desire to make investments an excellent opportunity is offered.

IN CHANCERY,

30th December 1836.

Walter R. C. Worthington
vs.
Fielder Bowie, Thomas Lyles, William Smith, and Margaret his Wife, and others.

THE bill filed in this case in substance states, that Fielder Bowie, one of the defendants, sometime in the year 1817 purchased of a certain David Carcaud, now deceased, two tracts or parcels of land lying in Prince George's county, in the state of Maryland, called "Keith" and "Discovery," containing the first two hundred acres, and the last eight acres and one half of an acre, for the sum of $5,375—that the whole of the said purchase money has been paid, but that no deed of said lands was ever made by said Carcaud to said Bowie—that complainant has since become the purchaser of both of said parcels of land at a sale made by the Sheriff of Prince George's county, of the property of said Bowie, and has fully paid the purchase money thereof.

The bill further states, that the said David Carcaud died leaving two children, William M Carcaud and Sarah Carcaud, his heirs at law, and legal representatives—That William M. Carcaud, the son of David Carcaud, has also departed this life, leaving an only son, David Carcaud, Junior, who is also dead, leaving the following children, all of whom are minors, his heirs at law, to wit: David Carcaud, Thomas Carcaud, Gilbert Carcaud, William Carcaud, and Mary Letitia Carcaud, now residing in Calvert county—That Sarah Carcaud, the daughter of David Carcaud, intermarried with a certain Thomas H. Lyles, and that she and her said husband have also departed this life, leaving the following children their heirs at law, to wit: David C. Lyles, Henry Lyles, William C. Lyles, Thomas Lyles, and Margaret Lyles—That David C. Lyles is also dead, leaving the following minor children, his heirs at law, George D. Lyles, Dennis Lyles, and Maria Lyles, residing in Anne Arundel county—That Henry Lyles is living in Calvert county, and William C. Lyles in Anne Arundel county—That Thomas Lyles is now residing in the state of Ohio, and that Margaret Lyles, having intermarried with one William Smith, is now with her said husband residing in the state of Mississippi.

The object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of the aforesaid lands to the complainant.

It is thereupon ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the first day of February next, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill, that they may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the tenth day of May next, to answer the premises, and shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

THE SALMAGUNDI,

AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. ☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED
The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Haywarden's True Church of Christ shown; Haywarden's Charity and Truths More Catholici, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr M'Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for 20 years.

[Fourth Year of Waldie's ... Library.]
BOOKS AT REA...
PROSPECTUS OF TWO ... VOLUMES FOR 18...

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's ... Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable ...; the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transmission by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guaranty that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty puerile attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

THIS periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

 A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00 For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE,

Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $6 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $12 00.

BY E. L. BULWER,

Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of

The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Marryatt, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godey's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Marryatt, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its selections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a gentleman of high talent about to travel in Europe.—The subscription price is $2 per annum, payable in advance, or three copies for $5.

Saturday News and Bulwer or Marryatt's Novels can be had for $5.

All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to

L. A. GODEY & Co.,
100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading presses of this city:—

SATURDAY NEWS.—The weekly paper with the above title, whose advertisement we foretold a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godey, McMichael & Neal. Such a trio never got together before.—Neal and McMichael beat all for writing, and Godey beats all for publishing; and a capital job they have made of their first number, worthy all that was promised. We prophesy for them great success, and for the reader great satisfaction.—United States Gazette.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS.—We have been favoured with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is far above the ordinary standard and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspaper of the British metropolis Sustained in the same spirit, the News will soon win liberal patronage and enviable reputation. An amusing extract will be found in a subsequent column.—Enquirer and Courier.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in that city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, formerly issued by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A Godey, J C Neal, and M. McMichael, three gentlemen very favourably known as possessing the requisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.—Baltimore Gazette.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest size, issued by the Messrs. Godey, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their sheet. The Gentleman's Vade Mecum has been transferred to Messrs Godey & Co., and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter, in addition to that heretofore embodied in the Vade Mecum. We intended to publish their prospectus today, but have been prevented by want of room.—Berks and Schuylkill Journal.

SATURDAY NEWS.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, edited by Louis A Godey, conductor of the Lady's Book; Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvanian, and Morton McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should conclude that it will far exceed, for original matter, and new selections, any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is not a reprint of any other Gazette, which is too much the case with the mammoth sheets of that city.—Newcastle Gazette.

The first number of the Philadelphia Saturday News has been received at this office, and promises to be one of the very best weekly papers in the Union. The number before us is very creditable to the enterprising publisher and editors, its contents being various, entertaining and instructive. Those who wish a good family paper from the city cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godey, and edited by Morton McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Esqrs.—Darby Republican.

SATURDAY NEWS.—The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unequivocally on the "go ahead" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godey, whose Lady's Book we have in times past laboured to make our fair readers fairly in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "needful." Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our police head is by Mr. Neal, and is in his inimitable style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of sly and quiet humour.—Saturday Courier.

THE NEW-YORKER—
QUARTO FOUR-PAGE SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and cotemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF
Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote, and Facetiæ.
EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS
GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year TWO VOLUMES of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humorists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offsprings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote, and Facetiæ, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilirating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

☞ The "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stiched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for FIVE dollars. ☞ When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. ☞ Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid.)
